Students Who Need Accommodations
Please notify our office as early as possible if you have specific dietary needs, physical limitations, or other concerns, which may affect your orientation day. We also encourage you to contact the Office of Accessibility at (334) 844-2096 (V/TTY) to register your accommodation needs.

First Day of Classes
Summer 2016 classes begin May 19.
Fall 2016 classes begin August 16.
Spring 2017 classes begin January 11.

Students starting in the summer semester should plan to attend SOS on May 12 or before.

The deadline to register for SOS is one week prior to the session you wish to attend. Anyone not registered by the deadline must attend a future SOS—no exceptions will be made.

This is the only invitation you will receive. You are encouraged to sign up and attend SOS as soon as possible. It is better to attend SOS in the spring rather than wait until August. No registration for fall semester classes will take place after the May SOS session until the August SOS session. For more information, go to auburn.edu/sos.

Auburn University is an equal opportunity educational institution/employer.
Produced by the Office of Communications and Marketing, August 2015.
Successfully Orienting Students (SOS) is Auburn’s one-day transfer orientation program, which emphasizes campus life and services. At SOS, you will meet with your academic advisor and have small group discussions on college life led by Auburn student leaders. A general schedule and frequently asked questions can be found at auburn.edu/sos.

We will send you confirmation once we receive your registration. You are encouraged to sign up and attend SOS as soon as possible. You must attend SOS to register for your classes or to keep the pre-registered schedule being provided to you.

Registration for SOS
As an accepted student, you will be eligible to register for SOS upon receipt of both the $200 confirmation deposit and the Transfer Plan of Study to the Office of Admissions Processing. Visit auburn.edu/transfer for a link to the Transfer Plan of Study and additional directions for accepted students on how to submit the confirmation deposit.

For registration instructions, visit auburn.edu/sos. Registration takes place in your Tigeri account. You will need your user ID and password to access your account. Instructions are located on the “How to Register for SOS” link on the SOS website.

SOS Registration Fees
The SOS student registration fee is $100 and includes breakfast, lunch, and program materials. Please do not send money. SOS fees will be charged directly to your account.

Parents and other guests are also invited to attend SOS. There is a separate program designed specifically for them, and an additional fee of $50 per guest will be charged to your account. The parent/guest program is for family members interested in learning about Auburn. Incoming Auburn students are the only people permitted to attend the student program. Your friends should not plan to attend SOS with you unless they are also entering students and registered for that SOS session.

The SOS student and guest registration fees are non-refundable.

Class Registration Information
Auburn University offers entering transfer students a one-time opportunity to be pre-registered for their classes. This is a tremendous advantage to the student, as you will be placed in classes applicable to your major by professional academic advisors prior to the registration period for Auburn’s current students. In other words, if you meet the Feb. 1 deadline, you are getting the first choice of classes. If you do not meet the deadline, you will be faced with registering on your own after current Auburn students have registered. You will not be offered this benefit again in your career at Auburn, so take advantage of it now. To qualify for this benefit, the following things must be completed by February 1, 2016:

- Acceptance to Auburn University for either summer or fall 2016.
- Submission of the Transfer Plan of Study, found at auburn.edu/transfer.
- Submission of the non-refundable $200 confirmation deposit.

If you meet the February 1 deadline
You will be registered for summer and/or fall classes by your academic advisor and will receive your schedule of classes when you attend SOS. You may expect 5-7 hours for summer semester and 12 or more for fall semester. In order to receive this benefit, you must have either attended SOS or be registered for SOS and pay the tuition bill posted to your eBill in July. If these stipulations are not met, your schedule(s) may be dropped, and you must still attend SOS in August prior to registering for classes. Students starting in the summer semester should plan to attend SOS on May 12 or before.

If you were unable to meet the February 1 deadline
You will meet with your academic advisor and receive registration instructions at SOS. Class selection will be highly reduced by the time you attend SOS. The sooner you attend SOS, the longer you will have to work on your schedule, and the more likely you will be able to obtain a full schedule of classes, although your schedule may not be finalized until August. Students who wait until the August SOS to register may struggle to obtain full-time hours.

Summer Students
Students who wish to enroll in summer school but who do not meet the Feb. 1 deadline should plan to attend SOS in the spring. You may begin summer and fall registration immediately after SOS. For this reason, it is highly advantageous to attend SOS in the spring.

Students who wish to enroll in summer school but who do not meet the Feb. 1 deadline and who do not attend SOS in the spring will be allowed to enroll in summer classes only and will be required to attend the SOS session in August prior to registering for fall semester. It is highly advantageous to attend SOS in the spring. Students who attend the August SOS may struggle to obtain full-time hours.

Spring 2017
Transfer students and freshmen planning to enroll spring 2017 should note the priority registration deadline is Sept. 22, 2016. To be pre-registered for spring 2017 classes, you must be accepted and pay the tuition deposit in advance of the deadline. Additionally, transfer students must submit the Plan of Study by that date. All pre-registered students must still attend SOS to claim that schedule. Students who do not meet that deadline will register for classes after attending SOS in either November or January. Attending SOS earlier is always better.

Football Tickets
Per Auburn University Athletics Department policy, if you have earned no credit hours from Auburn (not transfer credits), you will only be able to order football tickets if you have a fall semester schedule in place.

If you do not meet the Feb. 1 deadline (see Class Registration Information), the only way to have a fall schedule in place is to attend SOS in the spring. Transfer students who do not attend one of the four SOS sessions in the spring will not be allowed to register for classes until the August 12th SOS session.
