Introduction to Academic and Professional Support Services
Zoom link: aub.ie/fyeademedia
Join this session to gain an overview of available support services and programs that can help you succeed and thrive both academically and professionally at the University. Staff from Academic Support, AU Libraries, University Writing (Miller Writing Center), SKILL Academic Coaching (for students with disabilities), and University Career Center will share brief summaries of services and provide time for questions through both live and chat features.

Student Financial Services - Billing
Zoom link: aub.ie/fyebilling
This session concentrates on the student’s eBill. We will go over where to access eBill, important dates, payment plans, financial release of information, how to set up parents as authorized users, making payments, direct deposit information, prepaid tuition notification plans (such as PACT, FL Prepaid), along with other miscellaneous billing topics.

Get Involved on Campus with Student Involvement
Zoom link: aub.ie/fyeinvolve
Did you know that Auburn has more than 550 student-led organizations on campus that you can join? Whether you are interested in giving back through community service, saving the bees, building robots or growing as a leader, Student Involvement has a community for everyone. Getting involved with a student organization provides students with a social outlet, hands-on learning and resume building. Learn how you can get connected at Auburn as the Student Involvement staff and Involvement Ambassadors lead this virtual session.

Diversity 101
Zoom link: aub.ie/fyediversity
Are you looking to build a diverse community during your time at Auburn? Not sure where to start to find those resources? Join the Office of Inclusion and Diversity and learn about the student experiences, resources and initiatives, and opportunities to engage with a diverse community of student leaders during your Auburn journey. You’ll hear more about the Tiger Excellence Scholars Program (TESP), the Cross Cultural Center for Excellence, and our student experiences designed specifically for incoming students to thrive at Auburn.

Safety & Accountability On and Off Campus
Zoom link: aub.ie/fyesafety
Join Campus Safety & Security, Auburn Police, Student Conduct and Title IX to hear what you can do to prepare for a safe college experience. Learn about safety and security services, emergency preparedness, signing up for AU ALERT, and educational opportunities, as well as how the university keeps our campus safe and educates our students when addressing reports of student misconduct, including sexual assault, relationship violence, and stalking. Get your safety, security & conduct-related questions answered.

Tiger Card
Zoom link: aub.ie/fyetigercard
This session will discuss several different functions of the Tiger Card (the official University-issued student identification card).

Student Media Blitz
Zoom link: aub.ie/fyestudentmedia
This breakout session is to inform students and parents of student media is, how to join our organizations, and how to stay up to date with our content.

Watch a quick video presentation, participate in a Q&A with our team, and get access to digital resources to help you successfully navigate “The Rec.” Students will also receive a special “coupon” to redeem for an AUsome freebie, upon their arrival to campus in the fall.

Connecting with Religious Student Organizations and Campus Ministries
Zoom link: aub.ie/fyeministries
This is the first and very important step in connecting with Religious Student Organizations and Campus Ministries around Auburn! Only takes about 3 minutes. Inclusive of all denominations, religious backgrounds, and faiths, you will only be contacted by the ministries of your choice. If you’re short on time, connect via https://forms.gle/YvzyrAifJqMCLC7

Office of Information Technology – Service Desk
Zoom link: aub.ie/fyetechnology
The Office of Information Technology (OIT) supports and maintains a large number of IT resources on campus, including many that you will use as a student at Auburn University. One part of OIT is our Service Desk, which is available to assist students with IT questions, reporting problems, and requests for assistance. The IT Service Desk is located on the 3rd floor of Ralph Brown Draughon (RBD) Library and is available by a variety of convenient methods including phone (334-844-4494), email (itservicedesk@auburn.edu), chat, and others. From computing questions, Office365, Duo – Multifactor Authentication, and Adobe Creative Cloud, to account information, email, WiFi, and cable tv, we are here to answer IT questions that you may have regarding your Auburn account.

Auburn Bands
Zoom link: aub.ie/fyebands
This session is an opportunity for incoming students to interact with directors and student leaders of the Auburn University Marching Band, and to have additional questions answered about how to join the marching band and other ensembles at the university. Auburn Bands has produced a video that will answer most questions related to membership in the AUMB, and provides information about the basketball pep bands and concert ensembles. The video is posted on the homepage of the band’s website: band.auburn.edu. It is highly recommended that you watch the video before attending the breakout session. One of the band directors will be available during the first presentation only; band student leaders will be available at all sessions.

First Time Tigers
Zoom link: aub.ie/fyefirsttime
Are you nervous about sending a student to college for the first time? First Time Tigers will discuss a range of topics to help you feel comfortable with your student’s transition to Auburn. Topics range from what to expect from a college experience, ways to navigate critical conversations to have with your student before move-in, and resources from fellow Auburn families.

VA Education Benefits
Zoom link: aub.ie/fyebenefits
Representatives from the Veterans Resource Center will address all students utilizing a VA Education Benefit at AU. We will answer questions about Federal and State education benefits, including but not limited to, Chapter 30: Montgomery GI Bill® (MGB), Chapter 31: Vocational Rehabilitation (VR&E), Chapter 33: Post 9/11 GI Bill®, Chapter 35: Dependents Education Assistance (DEA), Chapter 1606: Montgomery GI Bill®-Select Reserve (MGIB-SR), the Fry Scholarship, the Alabama GI Dependent Scholarship (ALGI) and the Alabama National Guard Education Assistance Program (ANGEAP).

Additionally, we will also assist students to determine if they qualify for resident tuition rates under Section 702 of The Choice & Accountability Act (Choice Act), the Alabama House Bill 424 (HB424), and the National Guard Waiver (NG Waiver). Auburn University also participates in the Yellow Ribbon Program (YRP), offering 75 slots a year.

For information on how to use VA Education benefits here at Auburn, and for a list of resources for military-affiliated students, please visit our website veterans.auburn.edu.
