I believe that this is a practical world and that I can count only on what I earn. Therefore, I believe in work, hard work.

I believe in education, which gives me the knowledge to work wisely and trains my mind and my hands to work skillfully.

I believe in honesty and truthfulness, without which I cannot win the respect and confidence of my fellow men.

I believe in a sound mind, in a sound body and a spirit that is not afraid, and in clean sports that develop these qualities.

I believe in obedience to law because it protects the rights of all.

I believe in the human touch, which cultivates sympathy with my fellow men and mutual helpfulness and brings happiness for all.

I believe in my country, because it is a land of freedom and because it is my own home, and that I can best serve that country by “doing justly, loving mercy, and walking humbly with my God.”

And because Auburn men and women believe in these things, I believe in Auburn and love it.

– George Petrie

Auburn Creed
Although several stories of Auburn’s battle cry have been passed down through the years, the true origin is anyone’s guess.

One story dates back to the first time Auburn met Georgia on the football field in 1892 and centers on a spectator, who was a veteran of the Civil War. In the stands with him that day was an eagle the old soldier had found on a battlefield during the war. He had kept it as a pet for almost 30 years. According to witnesses, the eagle suddenly broke free and began majestically circling the playing field. As the eagle soared, Auburn began a steady march toward the Georgia end zone for a thrilling victory. Elated at their team’s play and taking the bird’s presence as an omen of success, Auburn students and fans began to yell “War Eagle” to spur on their team. Unfortunately for the eagle, it took a sudden dive, crashed into the ground, and subsequently perished. But the battle cry, “War Eagle” lived on to become a symbol of the proud Auburn spirit.

Another version of the War Eagle story comes from Indian lore. Legend says “War Eagle” was the name given the large golden eagle by the Plains Indians because the eagle furnished feathers for use in their war bonnets. The 1914 contest with the Carlisle Indians provides another story. The toughest player on the Indians’ team was a tackle named Bald Eagle. Trying to tire the big man, Auburn began to run play after play at his position. Without even huddling, the Auburn quarterback would yell “Bald Eagle,” letting the rest of the team know that the play would be run at the imposing defensive man. Spectators, however, thought the quarterback was saying “War Eagle,” and in unison, they began to chant the resounding cry.

The most popular version grew from a 1913 pep rally at Langdon Hall where students had gathered the day before the Georgia football game. Cheerleader Gus Graydon told the crowd, “if we are going to win this game, we’ll have to get out there and fight, because this means war.” During the frenzy, another student, E.T. Enslen, dressed in his military uniform, noticed something had dropped from his hat. Bending down, he saw it was the metal emblem of an eagle that had been loosened while he cheered. Someone asked him what he had found, and Enslen loudly replied, “It’s a War Eagle!” History was made as the new cry echoed throughout the stadium the next day as Auburn battled Georgia. Of the many stories this one remains the most credible.
On the rolling plains of Dixie
'Neath the sun-kissed sky,
Proudly stands our Alma Mater
Banners high.

To thy name we'll sing the praise,
From hearts that love so true,
And pledge to thee our loyalty
the ages through.

We hail thee, Auburn, and we vow
To work for thy just fame,
And hold in memory as we do now
Thy cherished name.

Hear the student voices swelling,
Echoes strong and clear,
Adding laurels to thy fame enshrined so dear.

From the hollowed walls we’ll part,
And bid thee sad adieu;
Thy sacred trust we’ll bear with us
the ages through.

We hail thee, Auburn, and we vow
To work for thy just fame,
And hold in memory as we do now
Thy cherished name.

War...Eagle, fly down the field,
Ever to conquer, never to yield.
War...Eagle fearless and true.
Fight on, you orange and blue.
Go! Go! Go!
On to victory, strike up the band.

Give ‘em hell, give ‘em hell.
Stand up and yell, Hey! War...Eagle, win for Auburn, Power of Dixie Land!
WELCOME to Auburn University

Dear New Students and Family Members:

It’s my honor to be your host for Camp War Eagle and SOS, Auburn’s orientation programs for new freshmen and transfer students. While you are attending orientation, please know that the staff of the First Year Experience Office is available to you and ready to help with any needs you may have, and will continue to serve as a resource for you throughout your time at Auburn.

Students, orientation will provide you with the opportunity to meet new people, to learn more about our campus and the services available to you, and to become better prepared to be successful Auburn students. Family members, you will also have opportunities to interact with representatives from many different parts of campus. Let me encourage you all to take full advantage of your time at orientation. Ask every question you need to ask. Visit every office you need to visit. Our students, employees, and faculty are all here to help you in any way they can.

When you leave your orientation session, I hope that you will do so with a sense of comfort and confidence – comfortable that you have made a great decision to attend Auburn, and confident that you are equipped to be a successful student.

Again, welcome to orientation, and War Eagle.

Mark Armstrong
Executive Director of Academic Partnerships

Dear Incoming Students and Families,

War Eagle, and welcome to the Auburn Family! We are so excited you have chosen Auburn as your home away from home. We hope your time at Auburn brings you an exceptional education and vast opportunities and experiences.

While at orientation, we hope you will make new friends, familiarize yourself with Auburn’s numerous resources, and see the passion and love we have for the University. All of our orientation leaders and counselors have been training for your arrival since January and are here to lead you through your orientation experience and guide you through a smooth transition to Auburn.

Students, you will be led by orientation leaders and counselors who are extremely excited to meet you! They will lead you through small group discussions, a campus tour, and information sessions. These students will be there for you during orientation and throughout your entire Auburn experience. Parents and guests, we also have orientation leaders and counselors trained specifically for you. They are prepared and excited to assist you and will provide an honest student perspective of Auburn University. Their goal is to help you have as effortless of an adjustment as your student.

As head orientation leaders, our responsibility has been to train these leaders in order to provide you with the most effective and informative orientation possible. We encourage you to take full advantage of your orientation session by attending breakout sessions, asking questions, and getting to know the students serving as your orientation leaders and counselors. We hope you enjoy your time at Auburn, and please feel free to approach us with any questions.

War Eagle,

Changing Your Major at CWE
Some Colleges and Schools are not advising at every CWE session this summer. Colleges/Schools not advising at this session of CWE are unable to accept major changes. You should either stay in your current major or choose a College/School that is advising at this session of CWE. You may change your major during the first week of the Fall semester. Your Camp Counselor has more information about what Colleges and Schools are advising this session.

If your desired School or College is advising this session, you may change your major.

How is CWE Advising different from advising in future semesters?

At what part of the fall will I see my advisor again?

What do I do about AP/IB/Transfer credit?

SCHEDULING QUESTIONS TO ASK
1:30 P.M. on Day 2
What classes do you expect me to take this fall?

If any of those classes are full, what backups can I consider?

Is there an orientation class I need to register for?

Is the 4 year curriculum on a set structure? What classes will I potentially be taking in the future?

Medical Forms
auburn.edu/medical
- If you completed the electronic Letter of Understanding, you have 30 days from your SOS session to submit your medical documentation. Failure to submit medical documentation within 30 days could result in a hold on your account preventing you from registering or adjusting your class schedule.
- If you have trouble submitting the form, contact the Medical Clinic at 334-844-4416.

Tiger Club Account
auburn.edu/tigercard
- The Tiger Club Account is an optional program different from your Dining Plan that uses your Tiger Card to make purchases at many on and off campus locations.

Student Financial Services
auburn.edu/sfs
- Auburn’s Student Financial Services Office assists with three different types of financial aid: loans, grants, and the federal work-study program.
- SFS also has a separate financial aid office for veterans (217 Foy).
- Auburn University requires direct deposit for all refunds and paychecks. The direct deposit form is found on the My Finances tab of AU Access.

AU Medical Clinic
auburn.edu/medical
- Medical fees are not included in tuition. They must be paid at the time of service and cannot be put on your eBill. The Medical Clinic accepts many types of insurance, major credit cards, cash, and checks.
- There is an on-site pharmacy operated by the AU Pharmacy School and prescriptions can be put on your eBill.

Tiger Card - Student ID
auburn.edu/tigercard
- $25 processing fee for each
- Tiger Card charged to eBill
- Use the “GET Mobile” App to have your Tiger Card on your phone to pay at dining locations.

eBill
auburn.edu/sfs
- Your eBill account is billed monthly by Student Financial Services for most University fees.
- All bill notifications are sent to your Auburn e-mail address, and you will access your eBill account through the My Finances tab of AU Access.
- The first bill of the semester is sent early April for Summer, middle of July for Fall, and the middle of November for Spring. It often includes tuition, dining plan, on campus housing, and sometimes your Tiger Card and Parking Permit charges.
- Tuition is the same for 12 hours or more. To get the most value for your tuition, aim to take 15 hours each semester.
- You may add authorized users to your eBill account, which allows the user to view and pay your bill.
- Student Financial Services offers two payment plan options.
  - For a small processing fee, you can split your school costs in multiple payments and pre-pay the anticipated tuition cost. For more information visit: auburn.afford.com.
  - For the first bill of each semester, if you pay half of the bill, your class schedule will be retained and you will pay the second half the next month.

University Scholarships
auburn.edu/scholarships
- Auburn provides a variety of scholarships to eligible students through the Auburn University Scholarship Opportunity Manager (AUSOM). AUSOM can be found in the My Finances tab of AU Access.
- Options for transfer students may be limited now, however more opportunities may arise in future semesters.

Housing
On campus: auburn.edu/housing
- The Hill, The Quad, The Village, South Donahue, and Cambridge
- Contact Auburn University Housing for more information on available space and how to apply.

Off Campus: offcampushousing.auburn.edu
- Database specifically for Auburn students. Browse and view apartments to rent, search for roommates, and find resources for off campus students.

Dining Plan
auburn.edu/dining
- Mandatory Meal Plan (Declining Balance):
  - On-Campus Students - $1,100 per semester
  - Off-Campus Students - $350 per semester
  - Funds roll to next semester and expire at end of summer
- Block Meals:
  - Can only be used in semester purchased.
  - Does not roll to next semester.
- Any meal plan changes must be requested by the 10th day of each semester. Your meal plan will be renewed at same rate each semester unless you make a change.
Parking Services
auburn.edu/parking
Three main rules of parking:
1. Register your vehicle on AU Access (My Campus tab).
   - Off-campus students will register for Preferred C ($180) or C ($80) Zones.
   - On-campus students will register for residential zones ($180 close to living area or $80-Residential Overflow).
   - Preferred parking is determined by first come/first served system in July for on campus students, and the week before classes for off campus students. For Summer and Spring students, registration will only be available for C or RO zones.
   - Motorcycles need to register for a parking pass ($15).
   - All bicycles operated on campus need to be registered annually (free).
2. Park in your designated zone.
   - Parking zones are in effect weekdays from 7 a.m. - 5 p.m., and on-campus resident parking zones are enforced 24/7.
3. Park in a legal parking spot.
   - R-zones (except RO), yellow curbs, Dean’s and President’s Parking, state vehicles, and all illegal parking (handicap spots, grass, etc.) are enforced 24 hours.
   - University parking tickets and towing charges can be paid at the Parking Services Office. If not paid after 10 days, charges will be transferred to your eBill.
   - You may be towed if you park off campus in a restricted area (not through AU Parking).

Tiger Transit
auburn.edu/transit
- Download the "TransLoc Rider" app to track the transit buses and find the routes.
- Regular hours are 7 a.m. - 6 p.m., M - F
- The External Night Transit runs 6:15 p.m. - 10:00 p.m. (during the fall and spring) and only takes students off campus from the Student Center.

Campus Safety & Security
auburn.edu/safety
- The Night Security Shuttle runs from 6 p.m. - 7 a.m. and takes students from any campus location to another campus location. To request the Night Security Shuttle, call 334-844-7400.
- Sign up for AU Alert on the My Campus tab of AU Access.
- Keep your emergency contact information current on the My Campus tab of AU Access.
- The "Auburn Safety" app provides safety resources, notifications, and in-app Security Shuttle request.

Auburn University Campus Policies
auburn.edu/studentpolicies
- AU Campus policies are found online through the web address above.

AU Libraries
lib.auburn.edu
- AU Libraries are more than just a place to study.
- Check out the Subject Specialist Librarians or ask Librarians questions at the reference desk on the second floor, by phone, text, email, or chat. Their contact information is at the website above.
- To reserve a study room, use: aub.ie/dibs

Academic Support
auburn.edu/academicsupport
- Check out Study Partners, Supplemental Instruction and Academic Coaching.

Office of University Writing & Miller Writing Center auburn.edu/writingcenter
- The Writing Center offers 30 to 60 minute face-to-face peer consultations to work with all styles of student writing.
- They will help you with all types of writing (not just English assignments), and they can help at any stage of the writing process.

Accessibility
accessibility.auburn.edu
- The office requires prior documentation of a disability in order to provide services and classroom accommodations.
Student Involvement
auburn.edu/involvement
- You can check out AU Involve for a listing of over 500 student organizations and their upcoming events.
- If you are looking to get involved or are unsure where to start, go see the Involvement Ambassadors. They can help you find involvement opportunities and determine which are best for your personal interests. You can visit them in AUSC 3130 or email them at involve@auburn.edu.
- If you want to meet people from various organizations, check out O-Days on the Concours on Wednesdays from 10 a.m. - 2 p.m.

Office of Inclusion & Diversity
auburn.edu/diversity
- OID has three subunits: Access & Inclusive Excellence, Women's Initiatives, Inclusion & Diversity Education
- Tiger Retreat - 2 day retreat prior to the start of classes for first-generation, multicultural or diverse first-year students.

First Year Experience
189 Foy Hall
auburn.edu/fye
- First Year Experience is a resource for all new students year round - ask them questions if you're ever stuck!
- Be on the lookout for Transfer Student Newsletters that include important reminders, transfer tips and information about campus resources.
- FYE coordinates Tau Sigma (transfer honor society) which is based on your first term grades.
- FYE coordinates SOS and Camp War Eagle (freshman orientation). If interested in being an Orientation Leader, applications are available in September.
- FYE coordinates First Year Seminars. UNIV 1050: Success Strategies is a great one-hour course to help acclimate to Auburn and improve your academic skills.

Campus Recreation
auburn.edu/campusrec
- Explore the Recreation and Wellness Center's many services. Bring your Tiger Card or use the Campus Rec App to get in and check out equipment.
- Campus Recreation offers a variety of Intramural sports throughout the year.

Academic Warning and Suspension
auburn.edu/studentpolicies
- You will be placed on Academic Warning if your Auburn cumulative GPA is below a 2.0 at the end of any semester. Only the GPA you earned at Auburn will be considered.
- Continued poor performance can place you on Academic Suspension.
- Talk to your Academic Advisor if you are struggling. They can help connect you with resources and help you make a plan to raise your GPA.

Career Services & Cooperative Education
auburn.edu/career
- Career Services & Cooperative Education has many resources to help you navigate the process of choosing a major/career and conduct a productive job search.
- Their staff provides resume, cover letter, and personal statement writing assistance, mock interviews, and job search assistance.
- They offer an eResume Review where you can submit your resume and it will be sent back to you with suggested revisions.
- They coordinate many events and fairs throughout the year to provide career, graduate school and major selection opportunities.
- If you are looking for internships, part-time or full-time jobs either on or off campus, check out Handshake - auburn.joinhandshake.com.

Student Counseling & Psychological Services
auburn.edu/scps
- SCPS enhances the mental health and psychological wellbeing of students and helps students have a balanced college experience.
- SCPS offers individual and group counseling, consultations, and referrals.

Health Promotion & Wellness Services
auburn.edu/healthandwellness
- Watch for an email from HPWS regarding AlphaPoint, an educational programs for all incoming students.
- This office coordinates Safe Harbor which provides comprehensive services free of charge to students who are survivors of sexual violence and rape. You can contact Safe Harbor 24/7 if you or someone else needs assistance at 334-844-7233.

Rules for dropping and adding a class
See the box at the bottom of the next page.

Athletic Tickets
My Campus tab on AU Access
- Football tickets are ordered from the My Campus tab of AU Access and billed to your eBill account.
- All incoming students with zero Auburn hours must register for the ticket lottery.
- The AU Ignited card is required for admission to all athletic events. The card can be made at the Auburn Ticket Office located at the Auburn Arena. You will need to get your Tiger Card made first.
- All other sports are free to students.

Grade Adjustment Policy (GAP)
auburn.edu/studentpolicies
- Auburn University has a policy that allows students to replace up to three Auburn grades of D, F, or FA.
- Talk with your academic advisor to determine if using GAP is a good option for you.
- Many organizations, professional schools, and scholarship groups will look at your unadjusted GPA, so using the GAP does not fully erase a poor grade from your academic record.

Changing your major to another school or college (after SOS)
- Tell your advisor in your current school or college that you wish to change your major to another college. They will then direct you on the next steps of the process.
Academic Advising
auburn.edu/academicadvising

• It is important to visit your advisor on a regular basis! Advisors have up-to-date information on major and graduation requirements and can help make sure you are on track.
• Use Advise Assist to schedule an appointment with your advisor.
• SOS advising will be a GROUP advising session which means there may be little time for in depth one-on-one advising questions. You can email questions or set up a one-on-one appointment when you return to campus if you need further assistance.

After your SOS Session today…

• Check your registration time ticket and register for classes. It is normal for it to take some time to get your full schedule. Keep checking back until you get what classes you need. For students starting in the Summer/Fall, registration will turn off in the middle of May through the middle of July.
• Finish submitting your medical documentation.
• Register your vehicle to park on campus.
• Finalize your housing plans.
• Participate in Welcome Week (the week before classes in the Fall and the first 3 days of the spring semester). You can find the full schedule in AU Guides.

Make the most of your advising meetings!

Good questions to ask in your first meeting:

• Who is my advisor and how do I contact him/her?
• What classes should I take my first semester?
• If any of these classes are full, what backups can I consider?
• Is there an introductory or prerequisite class I need to register for?
• Are there any specific core classes I need to take for my major?
• What do I do about transfer, AP, or IB credit?
• How will advising take place in future semesters? (Is it mandatory? Will it be individual or a group session? Are there drop in times?)

Ways to prepare for future advising meetings:

Before the meeting:

• Review the courses in your curriculum. Determine what you still need to take and then make a mock schedule to see if this raises any questions.
• Determine when your registration time ticket opens and schedule an appointment with your advisor prior to that date.
• Check to see if you have holds that will prevent you from registering.

Topics to discuss:

• How your semester is going
• Any areas you are having difficulties with or anticipate having trouble with. This could be academically related or problems you are having with the transition.
• Your classes and plans for the next semester and future semesters
• Any unresolved questions about transfer credits
• Opportunities beyond your degree, for example internships, organizations, and job shadowing opportunities
• Potential career paths with your major, strategies to reach your career goals related to your career

Transfer Student Tips

Follow these tips to make your transition to Auburn University a smooth one!

› See your academic advisor regularly. Your academic advisor can help you select courses and stay on track towards graduation. Meeting with your advisor at least once per semester is highly encouraged and sometimes required.

› Don’t assume. As a transfer student, you have already experienced a college environment before. However as you adjust to Auburn, keep in mind that every college and university operates differently, so it is important to educate yourself about Auburn's policies and practices. Important resources include the Student Policies (auburn.edu/studentpolicies) and the AU Bulletin (bulletin.auburn.edu) which includes academic curriculum information. Both contain policies and expectations you are responsible for knowing and following.

› It is okay to question your decision. When coming to any new environment, there might be a time when you feel like you are overwhelmed or that you do not belong. This is normal. Try to push through that feeling, talk to someone about how you are feeling, and stay positive. Remember Auburn University offered you admission because they know your worth and you had a reason for coming here. Believe in yourself and keep pushing through.

› Ask for help! If you begin to feel overwhelmed, ask for help early on. Your academic advisor can refer you to offices that can assist you.

› Get out there and meet people. It can be very easy to stay in your apartment or only come to campus for class, but to get the full Auburn experience take a chance and meet people. Strike up a conversation with someone between classes, use your meal plan to grab coffee with a study group, or make a new friend over lunch. You will not have “New Transfer Student” stamped onto your forehead, so you will have to take the initiative and be proactive to meet people. Soon, your go-getter attitude will pay off and you will start to feel at home.

› Check and use your Tigermail regularly. All official University communications are sent to your AU Tigermail Account. If you need help setting your email up on your phone or tablet, visit auburn.edu/oit/mobile.

› Become familiar with AU locations and lingo. Check out page 54 of this book for an introduction to commonly used terms and use the interactive campus map (cws.auburn.edu/map) to find all of your classes ahead of time.

› Figure out how to get to campus. Talk to current students to find out which parking lots are likely to have spaces on the days/times you will be on campus or you can see if there are any Tiger Transit stops near you. Whichever way you go, give yourself a little extra time to get to campus that first week so you are not late.

› Get to know your professors. Introduce yourself, ask questions, participate in the discussions, and visit during office hours. Faculty can be the key to your success at AU, and they are here to help. In addition, if you plan on attending graduate or professional school, you will need recommendations from faculty members who know you and the quality of your academic work.

› Get involved! Over and over again, transfer students suggest joining student organizations. These groups come with built-in social networks, and best of all, you can make new friends while pursuing your interests. Mingling and working with members of student groups is a sure fire way to get you settled in. Visit auburn.edu/auinvolve for a full list of student organizations.

› Familiarize yourself with the Auburn Libraries. The AU Libraries are probably very different from the library at your previous institution and offers a lot more than just books or study spaces. Become acquainted with their services and layout before the deadline of your first paper!

› Create YOUR Auburn Experience! Find ways to become connected and make Auburn your new home. Experiencing all the university has to offer and making it your own will help you believe in Auburn and love it!

What is DUO?
DUO is a 2-factor authentication application which requires individuals to provide their login information AND proof of identity via a secondary device before getting access to certain online services. Common proofs of identity are entering a code that you received via text message or hitting accept on a push notification to your phone. You may already be using 2-factor authentication for online banking, online shopping, and social media!

Why do I need DUO?
DUO will be required to access Tiger Scheduler once you’ve registered for your first semester of classes. It will also be required for accessing Tigermail, any applications within Office 365, and your Self-Service section of AU Access.

How do I get DUO?
To get started, go to auburn.edu/2factor, or scan the QR code, and follow the on-screen prompts. You can also get detailed instructions at aub.ie/duo-steps. Please make sure to only register student devices with DUO so students always have access to the functions they need!

Find out more about cybersecurity at aub.ie/cybersecurity or auburn.edu/oit.
Getting Connected

AU Access

AU Access is a customizable campus portal that connects to numerous student resources. There is a link located in the top right corner of the Auburn homepage, or you can go to auaccess.auburn.edu.

My Academics

This section includes your academic profile (major, college, and academic status), class schedule, your registration status, and the name of your Academic Advisor. You will use this tab to register for your classes, view your midterm and final grades, schedule an appointment with your academic advisor and view your unofficial transcript.

My Finances

You will use this tab for billing, financial aid and scholarships.

My Campus

This tab allows you to find student organizations with AU Involve, purchase your parking permit and athletic tickets, view details about the Tiger Transit routes, and update your personal information. There are also links to Tiger Printing, and the Handshake portal which posts jobs and internships.

AU Wi-Fi

All students can access the AU Wireless network (AU_WIFI) by using your user name and computing password. Wireless internet covers many on campus areas including academic buildings, residence halls, and the RBD Library. The full list can be found at auburn.edu/oit/wireless.

Tigermail

auburn.edu/tigermail
Tigermail is Auburn’s email system and the official means of communication on campus. This is how you should correspond with professors, staff and fellow students.
› Includes Email, Calendars, and OneDrive, a password protected online storage for personal files.
› You can even use this email address forever after you graduate.
› For instructions to set up your mobile device to retrieve your email, visit auburn.edu/oit/mobile.

Official Auburn University App

Check the Google Play and iTunes App Stores for the Official Auburn University App. Features of the app include:
› View the Campus Map
› View dining hours and menus
› Check your schedule and grades
› Stay up to date with University news and events
› Look up contact information for students and employees
› Link to other useful apps for Auburn resources

Need Assistance?

The OIT HelpDesk is available to help you with technology related questions or problems. Contact them at 334-844-4944 or helpdesk@auburn.edu.
Tiger Scheduler

Find your optimal schedule

1. Navigate to Tiger Scheduler and select the term.

   You can find Tiger Scheduler on the My Academics tab of AU Access.

   Once you click the Tiger Scheduler logo, select your class term.

2. Enter your desired classes.

   You can enter courses by the course code (ENGL 1100), title or instructor.

3. View the generated results.

   You may get a lot of class schedule combinations.

   Sometimes you may see an error message because you have too many schedule options. See the next step on how to narrow your options before adding another class.
4 Narrow and sort your options.

› Click and drag times you do not want classes.
  › Schedules that avoid these times will be prioritized in your results.

› Pin down class sections you like.
  › Tiger Scheduler will only show you schedules with that specific section.

› Sort the results using the drop down menu in the upper right.

5 Add your preferred schedules to your favorites.

Once you find a schedule you like, save it for later by using the “Add to Favorites” link.

6 Register for your classes.

To get your preferred schedule, you need to enroll for those courses through AU Access.

Copy and paste the listed six digit Course Registration Numbers (CRN) into the Add or Drop Classes Worksheet screen in AU Access.

Then submit the registration request.

You are not registered for the classes until you see Web Registered on the Add or Drop Classes Worksheet screen.

Updates are anticipated to the Tiger Scheduler System. These updates may change the look or functionality of Tiger Scheduler. Any changes to the system will be discussed during Camp War Eagle or SOS, or noted on Tiger Scheduler.
Class Registration

Things to check prior to registration each semester

› Check your Registration Status. You can view your specific registration time window on the My Academics tab in AU Access.

› Check for and Resolve Holds. Using the My Academics tab, check to see if you have any holds that will prevent you from registering for classes. Contact the appropriate offices to remove any holds.

1 Navigate to My Academics tab of AU Access.
   › Log into AU Access (auburn.edu/auaccess). This will take you to the My Academics tab.

2 Go to the Add or Drop Classes Screen.
   › Click “Add or Drop Classes” in the Registration and Advising Section.
   › Select your term from the drop down menu.
   › You may be asked to enter a PIN. Your advisor will give you this number.
   › You will then see this Add or Drop Classes Screen.

3 Find the class.
   › To add classes, enter the Course Registration Number (CRN) here.
   › OR
     › Click the “Class Search” button at the bottom of the “Add or Drop Classes” screen. When looking up classes, select the subject then the course number. You will then see all of the section options.
4 Add the class.

› Closed classes are indicated with a C and open classes with a checkbox. When you find an open class, click the checkbox and click Register.

› Once you see Web Registered you have successfully added the class.

5 If a class is closed, use the Waitlist.

Waitlists are not available during Camp War Eagle.

› Getting on the waitlist does not guarantee you will get in the class. If a seat opens up, you will be notified by email and will have 24 hours to claim the seat.

Rules of the Waitlists:

› If you are enrolled in a course, you cannot get on the waitlist of another section of the same course.

› You can only waitlist one section of a course at a time.

When choosing between sections, it may be helpful to see how long the waitlist is:

› WL Cap = the capacity of the waitlist for that class.

› WL Act = number of students on the wait list

› WL Rem = number of waitlist spots still available

To get on a waitlist, enter the CRN of the course.

› In the error message, you will see a dropdown menu to select "Waitlist".

› Then click “Submit Changes.”
Campus Lingo

If you’re going to be a true Auburn Tiger, you gotta walk the walk, but just as important, you gotta TALK the TALK! Below are words and phrases you may hear Auburn students using. Study up!

Aubie
Auburn’s tiger mascot and 9 time Collegiate Mascot National Champion.

Auburn
Name of the city which comes from a line in the poem, “The Deserted Village,” by Oliver Goldsmith.

Auburn University Student Center
Houses the famous James E. Foy Information desk (844-4244), which answers more than 10,000 phone calls per week, as well as a variety of meeting rooms. SGA, UPC, IMPACT and the Office of Student Involvement are located on the third floor of the building.

BSU
Black Student Union located in the Auburn University Student Center.

The Bulletin
Auburn’s online catalog covering course descriptions, degree requirements, and other pertinent information.

Chewacla
State park on the south side of Auburn where students go to hang out, swim, and enjoy other outdoor activities.

The Circle
Auburn’s student literary magazine.

Concourse

Eagle Eye
Auburn’s TV News Magazine, airing each weekday and hosted, produced, and written by students.

Eagle’s Nest
The roof of Haley Center which gives visitors a bird’s eye view of the entire campus.

Foy Hall
First Year Experience Office is located on the 1st floor of Foy Hall as is the Foy Commons Dining Hall.

The Glom
(noun) Short for the Glomerata, Auburn’s yearbook which comes out each spring.

Glom
(verb) The practice of looking up a person’s name, picture, etc. in the Glomerata to find out more about them.

GPA
Grade-point average

Haley Center
Building in the center of campus that seats more than 8,500 students at a time. Its maze-like structure tends to cause confusion among students.

The Hill
Name given to the area on the south side of campus where a number of residence halls are located.

Nova
Name of the golden eagle that resides at the Raptor Center; her real name is War Eagle VII.

Opelika
Opelika is Auburn’s sister city to the northeast.

Jordan-Hare
Football stadium named for Auburn’s winningest coach, Ralph “Shug” Jordan (pronounced JER-din), and Clifford Hare, a member of our first football team. The stadium can seat 87,451 fans.

The Auburn Plainsman
Name of the campus newspaper that is distributed each Thursday during the semester.

The Quad
Name given to the area in the central part of campus (behind Cater Hall) where several residence halls are located.

RA
Short for Resident Assistant; a student employed by University Housing to supervise campus residents and coordinate activities in the residence halls.

ROTC
Acronym that refers to the Reserve Officers Training Corps program.

SGA
Student Government Association

Toomer’s Corner

UPC
University Program Council; student group responsible for bringing entertainment to Auburn University.

WEGL
Call letters for the student-run FM radio station (91.1 on your FM dial).
Auburn Traditions

When you have a place as great as Auburn, traditions will naturally form. Just what is a tradition? We think it’s an event or an experience unique to a group of people. What follows are some of the traditions we at Auburn hold dear.

The Concourse
The brick walkway located in front of Haley Center is covered with Auburn students weather permitting. Students engage in many activities on the Concourse, from tables set up to promote organizations, to people socializing and others simply hanging out and enjoying a sunny Auburn day.

Toomer’s Lemonade
World famous Toomer’s lemonade is a must for any student wishing to experience part of Auburn’s history. Toomer’s Drugs was opened in the 1890s by Sheldon Toomer, a graduate of Auburn’s School of Pharmacy. Who’s the man who made the lemonade? He’s Mr. James Echols, a Toomer’s Drug Store employee from 1958 until his retirement.

Tailgating
Tailgating is a time when Auburn fans gather before football games to celebrate their true Auburn spirit with family, friends, and food.

Rolling Toomer’s Corner
A long-standing tradition after Auburn athletic victories, Rolling Toomer’s Corner is a time when fans flock to town to roll the trees surrounding the official entrance to the university with toilet paper.

War Eagle
Auburn’s famous battle cry. A universal greeting between all Auburn people.

Step Shows
Several times a year, competitions are held between National Pan-Hellenic Council (NPHC) fraternities and sororities in the art of stepping, a traditional form of dance and song among member groups. An individual chapter or person may sponsor the competition which is both an entertaining performance and an educational experience. Step Shows are held at various times of the year including Homecoming. Proceeds raised at these performances are usually given to charity.

Chewacla State Park
Especially popular with Auburn students in the spring, summer, and early fall, Chewacla State Park is located off South College Street on the south side of the I-85 overpass. Offered onsite at Chewacla are a pavilion for cookouts, a large grassy knoll for outdoor recreation, a lake with paddle boats, and a creek with large rocks great for sunbathing.

Cater Hall Callouts
Held on the back steps of Katharine Cooper Cater Hall, Callouts are a time when students who have been chosen for membership into certain campus organizations are announced. Typically, callouts follow a strenuous period of interviews with students by an organization.

Camp War Eagle (CWE)
Camp War Eagle is a time during the summer for incoming freshmen to visit Auburn during a one-night, two day period to help prepare them for their transition in the fall. Freshmen are led throughout this experience by Camp Counselors.

Successfully Orienting Students (SOS)
Successfully Orienting Students is a one-day orientation program for incoming transfer students to help prepare them for their transition to Auburn. Transfer students are led throughout this experience by Orientation Leaders.

Bid Day
Held every fall before school begins, this fun day commemorated the end of a long week of sorority recruitment. It is a time when women accept invitations to pledge into one of Auburn’s eighteen NPC sororities.

Iron Bowl
The Auburn vs. Alabama football game is generally referred to as the Iron Bowl. Auburn’s most intense rivalry, was first played in 1893. Auburn hosted the game in Jordan-Hare Stadium for the first time in December of 1989.

Hey Day
For many, this fun tradition exemplifies the friendly Auburn atmosphere. Held annually each fall, Hey Day is a time when students, faculty, staff, and administrators alike are given nametags and encouraged to say “Hey” upon coming in contact with each other!

ODK Cake Race
This 2.5 mile on-campus run began more than half a century ago when track Coach Wilbur Hutsell was exploring ways to discover freshmen for Auburn’s track team. Though it is no longer used as a tool for recruiting, this annual event is held every year on the Wednesday afternoon before Homecoming. The winner and top finishers receive a cake for their efforts.

Homecoming
Besides being a time for the alumni, Homecoming during fall semester, is a great time for the students. Spirit is high with events including a parade, the big game on Saturday, painted signs and windows, and the election of Miss Homecoming. In addition, the University Program Council brings events to celebrate the week. Events have included an outdoor cartoonist, hypnotists, fireworks and bands on the campus for students to enjoy.

Miss Homecoming
Crowned at the Homecoming football game each fall, Miss Homecoming is chosen by a vote of the student body. Traditionally, the Homecoming Court is made up of five Auburn students.
Class Schedule Tours

As you would probably expect, your relationship with your son or daughter will undergo some change in the coming months and years. Be ready!! Here are our tips to you on how to make the transition smoother for your child…and you!

- If possible, plan a campus visit - a game, a weekend, or a day in Auburn with your student. Take your son or daughter and their friends to lunch, dinner, or for an outing. You will not believe how many friends your child has when a free meal is involved, especially at the end of the semester when money is low. If you include friends, you are a welcomed guest just about any time.

- Never show up on campus unannounced!

- Send lots of mail, especially in the beginning of the year. No matter how many times you call, text, or e-mail, they truly enjoy a tangible piece of paper. Your student will be thrilled to receive an article of clothing once in a while or something silly.

- Join the Parents’ Association’s Family Portal. They will help keep you informed on what’s currently happening on campus. Visit auburn.edu/AUPA to sign up for the Association and newsletters.

- During the semester, send a beloved food item. If your student comes home on the weekends, send the leftovers back to campus.

- If you live in an area where there is a Kroger, Winn-Dixie or Publix - purchase a gift card in any amount. Your child may then spend the gift card at an Auburn grocery store getting food items, etc. You know this money will go for what it was intended - food!

- Plan to cook a favorite dinner once or twice a year for your student and friends. You will not believe the appreciation you receive and the love they feel.

- For holidays that you are not with them, send something appropriate. Plastic pumpkins filled with Halloween candy, Valentines, Easter baskets, etc. They love the traditions whether they are home or not.

- Have your student make a monthly budget instead of a semester budget for the first year. Be somewhat flexible the first semester.

- If you attend football games, plan to tailgate. Bring home-cooked meals… enough for an army. You will be like a pied piper when your student’s friends discover you cooked real food. You will never hear a complaint about your cooking again.

- Remember that you have limited control over your child. Have patience. Trust your child to make the correct decisions.

- Treat your child as an adult.

- Remember parental guidance does not mean trying to control your son’s or daughter’s decisions or actions from home. Keep criticisms to yourself, and you will be able to keep the lines of communication open.

- Encourage your student to foster a good rapport with his/her academic advisor and to continue to seek their advice throughout his/her academic career. As students become more confident, they tend to think they know everything. Mistakes can prove costly in terms of expense and possible delayed graduation.

- Make sure your health insurance carrier will cover your child out of state.

- Students need to always be aware of their current classification for registration purposes.

- View the academic calendar each year. It helps you to keep up with important dates.

- Encourage your son or daughter to develop a network. A network of peers, administrators, faculty, and staff they can count on for advice and guidance are a great resource.

- Make sure your student keeps the Registrar’s Office informed of address changes for both local addresses and mailing addresses. This will help avoid problems with important communication through the mail.

- Get academic support early on! If your son or daughter begins to get into academic trouble, don’t wait until they are already on suspension.

- Students who get involved on campus have greater academic success than students who only study. Auburn has more than 500+ clubs and organizations. Encourage your student to explore what’s available.

- Become familiar with the Auburn Bulletin and the Student Policies eHandbook at auburn.edu/studentpolicies.

- Don’t be upset if you do not hear from your son or daughter the first week of college. Be pleased they are fitting in so well, having a good time and keeping busy.

- Be aware that classes may be different from their previous institution. Courses may be more demanding at Auburn and your child’s grades might vary from what they are used to seeing. Remind students of the great academic resources on campus to help.

- Most of all, keep a sense of humor no matter what you see or hear.
I wish MY PARENTS had known...

Reflections from students who have been there

...that it is better to encourage me to follow my interests rather than discouraging me from trying new things.

...that there is more to going to college than studying and going to classes.

...how important and wonderful care packages and letters are!!

...that we would become closer even though I moved away.

...that in going away, I would not forget the values and morals my parents had instilled in me.

...to let me make my own mistakes.

...that I really needed those words of encouragement when school wasn’t going so well.

...that any major will teach me important critical thinking, writing, and analytical skills and that I will do so much better academically if I really like my major.

...to remind me that sometimes it takes a while to make friends.

...that I miss them a lot more than I let on.

...that it is best that they don’t know all the details of my life.

...that when figuring out how much spending money to give me, to remember little things like haircuts and toothpaste.

...that coming home again is a big adjustment (for all of us).

...that I would be stressed during midterms and finals, and not to take my grumpiness personally.

...to really listen when I call or write because you may miss what I am really trying to say.

...to give me a little extra freedom in the time before attending college so that transition to total independence is a little easier.

...that as hard as it is to encourage me to stay at school as much as possible, it will make it easier for me to adjust.

...$350 on my Tiger Card for living off campus may not last very long.

...letters are nice to get... even if they don’t have money in them (but money is nice too!)

...that I can make good judgments on meeting new friends.

...I cannot be involved in everything.

...a debit or credit card is necessary in college.

...I do enjoy talking to my parents. They aren’t bothering me when they call.

...business casual clothing was necessary for me.

...don’t send too much stuff because living in a crowded room is uncomfortable. Send only what you know we are going to use.

...it is not bad for students to live off campus. It is safe and an easy ride to school.

...phone calls work both ways. I cannot be solely responsible for calling every family member, every day.

...how difficult it is to coordinate a time for talking on the phone all the time.

...classes are harder than high school- I am really trying to get A’s, but sometimes I am going to fall a bit short, even if I made all A’s in high school.

...I would want tons of orange and blue for gameday!
Reflections from parents who have been there

...that my son didn’t necessarily pay attention when I told him how to do laundry- written instructions are helpful.

...that I wasn’t bothering my daughter by calling... she actually loved to hear from home when we talked.

...that my son was actually growing up and leaving home, not just going on vacation.

...that when my daughter called with problems, it was better to provide support and a listening ear than to jump in with my solutions.

...that although e-mail is a quick and easy way to keep in touch with my daughter, she really enjoyed mail and packages- even if they didn’t have money in them.

...that when my daughter comes home for a visit, she would also want to spend time with her friends.

...that it would be okay to trust my son, and he would turn out just fine even if I didn’t worry all the time.

...not to be offended why my daughter didn’t feel homesick until a month had passed.

...not to be offended when my daughter went home with her roommate during long weekends.

...that I should honor the separation but preserve the connection.

...that my daughter would change from a high school student who wanted to leave home and become independent to an independent, mature, capable young woman who began to appreciate and value the connection of family and comfort of “coming home.”

...to make time to spend together the summer prior to departure.

...to quietly slip family photos or other small treasures into their luggage.

...to prepare yourself for the letting go process. The journey can be bittersweet.

...to make plans to attend parent/family weekends.

...to say “I love you” often.

...that it’s important to avoid “I told you so’s.”

...that it’s important to be familiar with your child’s roommate and their parents.

...to be open-minded. College is full of experiences and an opportunity to develop identities.

...that I should brace myself for the changing of majors- the average student changes majors three times.

...that when they call home they want to feel missed, so I had to be patient even when I was on my way out the door.

...that I have to be patient the first time that my daughter came back from break. I had to remember that she had been setting her own curfews, and creating her own sleeping, eating, and dress habits.

AS A PARENT, I wish I had known...

...to make time to spend together the summer prior to departure.

...to quietly slip family photos or other small treasures into their luggage.

...to prepare yourself for the letting go process. The journey can be bittersweet.

...to make plans to attend parent/family weekends.

Academic Resources

For the Families
“When you are sending your student off to college, one big concern is if they are going to excel and succeed in an environment that is a lot different than high school. Parents, rest assured. Your student is in great hands with the academic resources that are offered at Auburn. Whether it be with Supplemental Instruction (SI) sessions where one of their peers who previously did well in the class acts as a teacher and tutor, or the Miller Writing Center, where students can go to get help with any type of writing assignment, your student is extremely well equipped with many tools to successfully complete their course load at Auburn.”

Mary Margaret McCarthy, Savannah, GA
Senior, Management

For the Freshmen
“One academic resource that I have found to be extremely helpful during my time at Auburn (especially freshman year) is Study Partners. Study Partners is a program where students can receive one-on-one peer tutoring in a wide variety of different subjects. Sessions are led by students who have done especially well in the class you’re needing help with. You’re able to bring in any of the material from class you are struggling with so that your session is tailored specifically to your needs. You can sign up online for time that fits best with your schedule and it’s completely free!”

Christian Smith, Hoover, AL
Senior, Exercise Science/Pre-Business

For the Transfer Students
“Transfer students enter into Auburn at many different stages of their undergraduate education. Regardless of what year a student is in, charting the course for your time at Auburn is an important initial step. One of the best things that I did to get acclimated quickly was forming a solid relationship with my academic advisor. You’ll be surprised with how much one-on-one time advisors dedicate to their students here. Whether to plan out your classes to ensure you graduate on time or to ask questions about internships or life after Auburn, stop by to see your advisor at least once a semester. They’re here to help!”

Zach Loyed, Dothan, AL
Senior, Political Science
Core Curriculum

What is the Core Curriculum?

It’s about becoming a contributing member of the workforce and an engaged citizen of the world.

The university’s core curriculum will help you gain the knowledge, skills, and perspectives that are hallmarks of Auburn alumni.

By completing courses across a diverse array of disciplines, you will develop essential, fundamental skills to help you prepare for a career after graduation. You will acquire an educated, informed appreciation of the natural world, human life, and the interactions between them.

Some of the required core courses may seem unrelated to your major or long-term career goals. These courses ensure you develop the broad knowledge an educated citizen needs to be a thoughtful, active member of their local and global communities, through service to others and chosen career.

The core courses help you learn the critical career readiness competencies identified by the National Association of Colleges and Employers (NACE). These classes will give you the requisite skills that employers are mandating in their most qualified and successful hires, helping ensure a confident transition into the workplace.

Some of your classes within the core curriculum expose you to ideas and fields of study that you maybe would have never encountered in your major. Sometimes you’ll like these classes so much it will inspire you to add a minor or change your major, as it did for me. I added Economics as a second major and it’s been one of the best decisions I’ve ever made.

– Justin Smith
Chemical Engineering and Economics

Core courses prime you for life, career, and work readiness.

Core Curriculum Requirements

All Auburn students, except those in Engineering*, complete the following core courses:

- 6 semester hours of English composition
- 12 semester hours of humanities courses, including at least 3 hours of literature and 3 hours of fine arts
- 6 semester-hour sequence in history or literature
- 12 semester hours of social science courses, including at least 3 hours of world history and 3 hours of a social science other than history
- 3-4 semester hour mathematics course
- 8 semester-hour science sequence that includes laboratory experiences

* Engineering students complete only 9 hours of humanities and social science core courses.
The strength of your major will get you in the door, but it is your career readiness that will get you hired and promoted.

Auburn students are extremely strong candidates for recruitment at ExxonMobil. They have top-notch communication skills and can seamlessly transfer knowledge obtained in an academic environment to real-life work challenges. We see Auburn graduates making a contribution very early on in their careers at ExxonMobil.

— Cindy (Kirk) Bliss
Auburn Recruiting Team Captain
National Account Sales, ExxonMobil F&L

Auburn has become a constant pipeline of new talent for our organization. We have found that students come to us work-ready and easily fit into their new positions. They are talented individuals who are not only bringing new technical skills and ideas to our teams, but also possess the soft skills that are so important to a successful career.

— Dan Robbins
Director, Career Development
Bentley Systems Inc.

Students can view their Academic Profile in AU Access on the My Academics tab. You should review your Academic Profile prior to registration each term to review your registration status. You can also find the name of your current academic advisor listed here.

WHEN TO SEE YOUR ACADEMIC ADVISOR
Early and often! Your academic advisor can help you avoid problems when you see them early and often. At minimum, students should meet with their advisor each semester prior to registration. All freshmen are required to meet with an advisor to register. You can schedule your advising appointment in Advise Assist located in AU Access.

WHAT TO SEE YOUR ACADEMIC ADVISOR ABOUT
Your academic advisor can always be your first stop for help with questions or problems.

They can help you navigate...

✦ Curriculum and graduation requirements
✦ Policies and procedures
✦ Challenges in your classes
✦ On-campus resources that will benefit you
✦ Available out-of-class opportunities to maximize your time at Auburn

YOUR ROLE IN ACADEMIC ADVISING
Your academic advisor works with you to help you accomplish your goals.

Your responsibilities are to...

✦ Attend all classes
✦ Read and respond to all email
✦ Schedule advising appointments in advance
✦ Come to appointments prepared: Have questions ready and bring ideas for your next semester’s schedule
✦ Always ask questions when you have them
✦ Follow through with recommendations
✦ Proactively notify your advisor of concerns
✦ Accept responsibility for your decisions
✦ Register in a timely manner

First Year Seminars & Learning Communities

Why take an FYS?
First Year Seminars (FYS) help you make a smooth and successful transition to college life. All FYS courses provide assistance with academic skill development, adjustment to college life, and detailed information on and experience with the functions, support services, and resources at Auburn.

Most sections of FYS courses are limited to 20 students, which gives you the opportunity to get to know your instructor and fellow students, participate in lively discussions and activities, and grow even closer to your new Auburn family.

Available to ALL First Year Students

UNIV1050: Success Strategies
Success Strategies is a one-credit hour graded course that helps you fine-tune your academic and personal skills. You will learn about note-taking and study strategies; reading, writing, and presentation skills; memory and test-taking tips; and career opportunities. You will also explore the available (and free!) academic and personal resources available to you on campus.

How to Register:
UNIV1050: Success Strategies is listed under “University Courses - UNIV” in AU Access.

Available to Themed FYS and Learning Community Students

UNIV1100: First Year Seminar (topics vary)
The First Year Seminar is a one- or two-credit hour graded course that focuses primarily on topics surrounding the theme of the Learning Community. Special emphasis will be placed on the importance of relating the class theme to academic skills necessary for success.

UNIV1150: Special Topics with Learning Strategies (topics vary)
Special Topics with Learning Strategies is a one- or two-credit hour graded course that blends exploring the topics surrounding the theme of your Learning Community with learning about many of the academic topics taught in UNIV1050: Success Strategies.
Academic Support contributes to retention and degree completion for Auburn University undergraduate students. It provides a variety of academic skill development programs that promote self-directed learning strategies and student success.

ACADEMIC COACHING

Academic Coaching is a free personalized program empowering students to achieve academic goals through improved study habits and skills. Students are paired with a coach and meet 3-5 times throughout the course of the semester.

PLAINSMEN’S PREP

Plainsmen’s Prep is a 10-day experience in which qualified students review pre-calculus and calculus content for a math placement exam. Participants have the opportunity to increase their math course placement for their first semester.

STUDY PARTNERS

Study Partners provides free one-on-one and drop-in peer tutoring for a variety of undergraduate core courses. The program and its tutors encourage students to grow as confident, self-directed learners in their studies.

STUDY SMART

Study Smart is a non-credit, 10-week program for students on suspension. The course guides students through an exploration of their responsibilities, motivation, self-awareness, and tools to maintain success.

SUPPLEMENTAL INSTRUCTION

Supplemental Instruction (SI) offers free active-review sessions facilitated by SI Leaders for historically difficult core courses. SI Leaders are undergraduate students who excelled in that course in a previous semester.

Set Yourself Apart.
Engage in Undergraduate Research.

WHO
Research is available to every Auburn University student, regardless of major or classification. From freshman year to senior year, undergraduate research is an option to set yourself apart.

WHAT
Types of undergraduate research include assisting a professor with a research project, undertaking an independent study, enrolling in a research course or even writing an undergraduate thesis.

WHEN
Research can be performed every semester and can work around your class schedule. Explore options to find the best fit to your time and availability, but keep in mind that research requires a commitment.

WHY
Undergraduate researchers claim that research helped them to discover their passion, to get into medical and professional schools, graduate school, and to find employment after graduation.

HOW
Talk to professors that share your research interests, and ask if they will work with you! You can also take a research course (a full list can be found on our website) or apply for an external research opportunity (a great way to spend your summer)!

EASL classrooms encourage collaboration in teams through moveable furniture.

Students practice planning and prioritizing work by completing assigned readings or watching digital content prior to class.

Students participate in discussions and collaborative activities during class time.

Monitors in EASL classrooms enable students to create and share digital content throughout the learning process.

Students in EASL classes report an average 6-point increase in final grades and better retention of information for future classes.

Different disciplines expect different kinds of writing, and professors have different goals in assigning written work.

Encourage students to:
- Use the resources available on campus – the professor’s office hours, peer responders, the Miller Writing Center
- Re-read the assignment to see if they’ve followed directions and met goals
- Outline their paper to see if the structure is logical
- Use the criteria for evaluation provided by the professor to do an honest self-assessment
- Make a list of the things that could be improved if there were an unlimited amount of time and then prioritize given the amount of time available
- Read the paper through aloud to catch unintentional errors and awkward sentences

Tips for Parents

Assist Your Student with College Writing

Even though many students may not need to write a job or graduate school application letter, compile a resume, or create an ePortfolio for some time, they can begin developing practices that will help them represent their learning to others in the future.

Encourage students to:
- Save their course work in an organized way and document their out-of-class experiences so they can return to them later
- Develop the habit of making reflective notes at the end of assignments, courses, and work experiences. Students can take control of their education and make better decisions about future action if they answer questions like:
  - What did I learn from doing this assignment or being in this course?
  - How does this work relate to my long-term goals and interests?
  - How might I use what I learned in the future?
  - What do I need to learn to do better?
- Take advantage of support offered through the ePortfolio Project
The ePortfolio Project is a campus-wide initiative that offers students the opportunity to create professional ePortfolios — personal websites that can help students think about their goals and plans, and revisit and reconsider their Auburn experience to share with a real audience.

The ePortfolio Project offers several opportunities to get involved, including:

Student Workshops:
All students are invited to attend the free ePortfolio workshop series hosted every semester.

Awards:
Students with exemplary ePortfolios are recognized at a yearly award luncheon.

Internship Opportunities:
Interns support the initiative by assisting ePortfolio staff in promoting ePortfolios across campus.

We offer:
- FREE one-on-one consultations with specially trained peer consultants
- Support for all academic and personal writing for all students from all majors
- Online resources and appointments
- Walk-in appointments as available
- Workshops on special topics

Make an appointment at one of our locations by logging into AU Access and clicking the MWC icon under “Academic Tools.”

Join our team of consultants!
The Miller Writing Center welcomes applications from all Auburn students in all majors to serve as peer writing consultants. Consultants are paid and trained to work with writers from all majors and disciplines. For more information, visit our opportunities page at auburn.edu/writing/get-involved.

See how you can get involved by visiting our website at auburn.edu/writing/get-involved
As a department, Accessibility embraces the philosophy that students with disabilities are, in fact, students with abilities who encounter social and environmental barriers. Our mission is to work collaboratively with students, faculty, staff and community to reduce these barriers, creating a more usable, accessible campus and learning environment. To achieve this goal we utilize academic accommodations, technology, support services, and student, faculty and staff training.

Some of the common disabilities served:
+ Blind and Low Vision
+ Learning
+ ADHD
+ Deaf and Hard of Hearing
+ Health and Physical
+ Mental Health

ACADEMIC AND OTHER ACCOMMODATIONS

Accommodations are determined individually and based upon quality documentation that addresses the impact of a student's disability in the academic environment.

TECHNOLOGY

A wide variety of technology services and software are available through Accessibility:
+ Assistive Technology Training
+ Digital Textbook Production (E-Text)
+ Captioning Support
+ Screen Magnification Software
+ Reading and Writing Support Software
+ Braille Production
+ Screen Reading/Text-to-Speech Software
+ Voice Recognition Software

WHEELCHAIR BASKETBALL

Auburn wheelchair basketball competes in the Intercollegiate Division of the National Wheelchair Basketball Association. Student-athletes are recruited nationally and internationally to compete for Auburn University. For more information, contact Head Coach Robb Taylor rjt0012@auburn.edu

TO APPLY FOR SERVICES

Please visit our website at accessibility.auburn.edu and click on "Steps to Receive Accommodations" for more information. If you have any questions, don't hesitate to call (334) 844-2096 and speak with an Accommodation Specialist.

AN UNFORGETTABLE EXPERIENCE

AUBURN ABROAD
A WORLD OF OPPORTUNITIES

Auburn Abroad is ideal for any college student, after completion of the freshman year through graduate school, who wishes to spend a summer, semester, or academic year living and learning in exciting and culturally diverse destinations around the world!

Each year more than 1,100 Auburn students study abroad in programs lasting from several weeks to multiple semesters. Our students have studied on every continent, including Antarctica. Programs feature a variety of disciplines, cultural experiences, service experiences and courses in every college and school. Housing choices are varied and several programs include home-stays or university housing. Through Auburn Abroad, students can go on Auburn faculty-led programs, faculty-supervised internships, and exchange programs for Auburn credit.

Auburn offers institutional financial aid for Auburn students. Scholarships and grants are administered based on merit and need to help students defray the costs of an international experience. PACT funding, university-based scholarships and financial aid may be used to pay for part of a program. The Director of Prestigious Scholarships is available to assist students with NSEP, Gilman, Phi Kappa Phi and other scholarships. For additional sources of funding, check studyabroadfunding.org.

FACTS ABOUT AUBURN ABROAD

• We can send Auburn students to any country in the world except those with a travel warning issued by the U.S. Dept. of State.

• Classes are available in English if a student does not want to study or does not speak a foreign language.

• Students are not limited to Auburn-based programs but can go with third-party programs that send students to accredited sites overseas or with a program through another university for transfer credit.

• Students are not limited to programs directly correlated to their major but may participate in any program to receive credit. This includes earning credits towards core requirements and/ or a minor. The number of credits taken would be the same that the student would take on campus during that term.

• When looking for a program, students can go to Program Search on auburn.edu/studyabroad to see a compiled list of all Auburn programs, as well as hundreds of affiliate programs.

WHY STUDY ABROAD?

• Earn academic credit towards your college degree.

• Gain a new perspective in your studies or first-hand working experience in your field.

• Develop international understanding.

• Increase adaptability, confidence, initiative and independence.

• Improve your ability to work in cross-cultural teams and to function in ambiguous environments.

• Enhance your problem solving abilities and crisis management skills.

• Gain an advantage in future job and advanced academic markets.

• Travel to exciting destinations.

...and many more reasons!

"The friendships that I made along the way will last a lifetime, and they are a constant reminder of the incredible journey that I was fortunate enough to be a part of. What started out as a distant dream quickly became a reality; a reality that I will forever hold as one of the greatest experiences of my life."

Earl Parsons, Affiliate Program - European Cultural History Tour

"Costa Rica changed my outlook on life and the way I do things today. I learned more about Spanish, international culture, personal relationships and myself more than I ever thought possible. Having a family open up their home to me and allow me to experience their daily lives was a treasure that I will never take for granted."

Esther Grubbe, AU Liberal Arts - Summer Program in San Jose, Costa Rica

Through our humble beginnings in the basement of Samford Hall to our current facility in Haley Center, serving students has been our priority since 1945. From textbook rentals to cap and gown rentals and every scantron in between, we have everything you need to be successful here at Auburn University.
EVERYTHING YOU NEED TO GO
BUY THE BOOK

We’re here to make finding and buying textbooks a breeze. With our selection of new books, used books, rentals, and e-books, our expert staff provides guidance and advice on each option so you can find the one that works for you. We are also proud to offer special programs and discounts to save you as much money as possible on your course materials.

The Bookstore facilitates the All Access program, which delivers e-books and online materials digitally on the first day of class at a lower price than the textbook retail cost. It is directly charged to your e-bill.
Our technology store is an Apple® Authorized Campus Store that offers the latest Mac® and iPad® products at education pricing. We also offer Apple Authorized Service on the products we sell and offer protection plans that will cover your Mac for all four years of school. Have an old Mac? Bring it to our technology desk and trade it in for a shiny new one.
The Auburn University Bookstore sells the supplies you need to help you make the grade, from notebooks and scantrons to lab coats and safety goggles. Stop in to see our great selection. The Study Essentials, located on the second floor of the RBD Library, is our satellite store that offers study supplies, drinks, and snacks to fuel even the most grueling of study sessions.

We have everything you need to show your Auburn spirit. With high-quality Auburn apparel, unique Auburn memorabilia, and everything you need for gameday, we have everything Auburn located conveniently in the center of campus. We sell the highest quality clothing for every member of the Auburn Family, including exclusives like the Samford + Donahue line.

On Auburn’s campus there are so many different things to get plugged into, you will find your niche somewhere. All throughout high school I played sports so coming to college I was nervous about not getting physical activity and having the same release. I found my outlet for physical activity at the Recreation and Wellness Center, commonly called the Rec. Whether I was working out by myself, doing one of the 100 group fitness classes they offer or playing an intramural game with friends, I got a chance to get my heart rate up and release some stress. I still cherish the memories I made when trying to play racquetball for the first time with my friends.”

Kelly Mordecai, Guilford, CT

For the Freshmen

As a transfer student, getting involved on campus can feel like a challenge. It’s understandable that you might be nervous about finding your place here; however, Auburn has so many great resources to help you through this process. The Office of Student Involvement is well-equipped to give you the ability to find organizations that you are interested in. Their office has Involvement Ambassadors that can help walk you through a variety of organizations on campus, in addition to their website: AU Involve, which lists every single organization on campus. This is a great place to start if you are unsure or nervous about trying to get involved on campus.”

Jarett Bache, Norcross, GA
Junior, Applied Mathematics

For the Transfer Students

“Coming to college, I knew I needed to advocate for myself. I am thankful for the help the Registrar’s Office provided because they talked me through the options I had for one of my challenges. Those interactions really helped me see the benefit of getting help early and actively pursuing help for other situations. The university’s staff in all departments are here because they want to help students. The more they get to know you the more they are able to assist you and be there for you when you need them the most. Having great departments on my side really allowed me reach my potential here at Auburn. Encourage your students to seek help early so they can further develop their independence.”

Beau Lewis, Norcross, GA
Junior, Marketing

The Auburn University Billing/Receivable System will bill students for the majority of their charges due to Auburn University. Monthly bills will be delivered through eBill to the student’s Tigermail e-mail address and any other e-mail addresses authorized by the student. Among the charges included within the system are those for tuition, housing, dining plan, parking, and books. Other charges will be included in the system as deemed appropriate. Auburn students automatically have an account in this system with their student ID number being their account number. eBill is convenient, reliable and secure. Check recent account activity, monthly statements, make payments, schedule automatic payments, and authorize others to make payments in this 128-bit encryption system.

The university charges all enrolled undergraduate students an $838 Student Services Fee per semester and a per credit hour charge of $409 for Alabama residents and $1,227 for Non-Alabama residents.

Alabama Resident
$5,746 flat rate 12 hours and above

Non-Alabama Resident
$15,562 flat rate 12 hours and above

Other charges that may apply: auditing fees, late payment fees, graduation fees, music fees, Student Pharmacy fees, CADC fees, Bookstore charges, HORT 2250, service fees, field lab course fees, Parking Services, Housing, printing charges, athletic tickets, and other miscellaneous charges

Deferred Payment
You may divide the first official bill of the semester into two half payments. First bills are issued in July, November, and April. The first installment must be paid by the due date or the student’s current semester’s schedule will be canceled.

Financial Aid
Financial aid will be electronically credited to the student’s account. If a financial aid recipient withdraws and AU has to adjust aid, the student’s account will be charged for the required amount.

Questions
Questions regarding tuition bills can be directed to the Billing Office at (334) 844-4634 or ebill@auburn.edu. Questions related to other charges should be directed to the originating department.
For each of these procedures, students will need to log in to AU Access. Beginning from auburn.edu select “AU Access” in top right corner, and log in using your username and password and DUO 2-Factor Authentication. You will then select the “My Finances” tab and follow the instructions listed on the right.

Authorized User

Students are the only ones who receive an eBill. In order for others to receive email notification and login access, the student must set them up as an Authorized User.

- Select the eBill logo at the top of the page
- Select “Authorized User” tab located near the top of the page
- Add e-mail address of the authorized user
- Select “Continue”
- Choose “I agree” and “Continue”

Financial Release

Students must give their permission to discuss their accounts with anyone else, even parents who are paying the bill. We encourage students to electronically sign a release by completing the following instructions.

- In “My Finances,” select “Financial Release Information”
- Select “Update”
- Select “Yes” and submit

Direct Deposit

Refunds for all active students are completed by direct deposit. Refunds are generated when there is an overage on your eBill account caused by overpayment or financial aid. Please follow these steps to set up your direct deposit.

- In “My Finances,” select “Banking Direct Deposit Info”
- Enter banking account information

Prepaid Tuition Plans

Students must notify Auburn University of any prepaid tuition plans. Please complete the following instructions to electronically submit your request.

- In “My Finances,” select “Prepaid Tuition Plan Notification”
- Enter your Student ID # / AU username
- Complete the notification form and submit

Financial Aid

WEB: auburn.edu/finaid PHONE: (334) 844-4634
E-MAIL: finaid7@auburn.edu

In order to determine federal aid eligibility for the 2019-2020 Award Year, students must complete the 2019-2020 Free Application for Federal Student Aid- FAFSA. Please visit the "Forms and Documents" section of our website for additional information. Other documents may be requested by our office depending on the results of the FAFSA. Our office will send award offers beginning early February for students whose applications are complete at that time. An application is considered complete only when all forms or data needed to determine eligibility are received. The award may consist of federal loans, grants, work study, and/or scholarships.

- Once the student has applied for financial aid, they will be notified beginning early February of how much aid they will receive for the school year. There are stipulations placed on the student to receive any type of financial aid.
- Aid is disbursed into the student’s account before the term begins and at various times during the term, depending on when the student completes the aid requirements. These monies are used to pay any balance that has been incurred with the University at that time.
- Students receiving a Federal Direct Loan for the first time must complete an online Entrance Counseling and a Master Promissory Note (MPN) at studentloans.gov.
- Any excess funds on the account will be refunded to the student. These refunds will be directly deposited to the student’s bank account. This can be completed on the My Finances tab in AU Access.
- To receive full grants, the student must be taking 12 hours. To receive loans, the student must be taking 6 hours. Students who drop below the required minimum hours may be required to repay all or partial aid received.
- The student must maintain a 2.0 grade-point average and average passing 67% of all hours attempted to continue to receive financial aid.
The Auburn University Medical Clinic provides a full range of primary and urgent medical care services for Auburn students, faculty, staff, spouses, dependents and visitors. Walk-ins will be evaluated and given appointments or seen immediately based on the urgency of their condition. The clinical staff consists of fully licensed and board certified/eligible physicians, certified registered nurse practitioners and certified physician assistants.

Auburn University believes in helping students address critical life skills such as alcohol abuse prevention and sexual assault prevention. As part of our comprehensive prevention program, Auburn University expects new students to complete online courses addressing these issues. These online courses empower students to make well-informed decisions about issues that affect college and years beyond.

The Office of Inclusion and Diversity (OID)

Our unit strives to ensure that the institution’s commitment to diversity is clearly articulated and apparent through a campus climate where all students, faculty, and staff feel welcomed and are treated with respect.

OID works to provide leadership, encourage collaboration and support for many of the institution’s diversity initiatives.

About us

Access and Inclusive Excellence

The Access and Inclusive Excellence (AIE) subunit supports the academic and co-curricular trajectories of students through signature programming efforts, cohort-based leadership and professional development opportunities, and comprehensive one-on-one coaching sessions. AIE seeks to provide a space for students to feel empowered in their individual identities.

The Cross Cultural Center for Excellence (CCCE) serves as a space for graduate and undergraduate students to strengthen their cultural acuity through collaborations with multicultural and diverse student organizations and workshops designed to enhance intercultural learning and understanding. The CCCE also has a physical space in the Auburn Student Center where students can study, host meetings and ultimately develop a sense of community.

AIE hosts a Tiger Retreat prior to the start of classes for first-generation, multicultural and diverse first-year students. This experience provides students with an opportunity to explore Auburn’s campus with current students and develop strategies for successfully navigating campus. Registration will open May 1st, so please visit diversity.auburn.edu to learn more!

Women’s Initiatives

The Women’s Center provides programming to support the advancement of women students and employees through events like the Women’s Leadership Conference and works to raise awareness around events that disproportionately affect women and individuals who do not identify on the binary.

Women in Science and Engineering (WISE)

WISE hosts events to help women students and faculty in STEM fields build community and grow networks.

Student Conduct

Student Conduct addresses violations of University policy through the Code of Student Conduct. Student Conduct provides a fair, impartial, and educational process that allows students to:

+ Address behavior that is detrimental to the university community.
+ Share their perspectives and help determine potential educational outcomes.
+ Explore how individual conduct affects other individuals, groups, and the larger Auburn community.

Student Conduct utilizes the Dean Certification Process which is used by study abroad programs, graduate/professional programs, and employers to verify student behavior while enrolled at Auburn University.

STUDENT CONDUCT ENCOURAGES PARENTS AND STUDENTS TO:

KNOW THE POLICIES
Students well-versed in University policies are less likely to violate policies. Visit auburn.edu/knowthecode to read the Code of Student Conduct.

REPORT DISRUPTIVE OR DANGEROUS BEHAVIOR
If you see something concerning, report the incident at aub.ie/studentconductreport

HAVE ONGOING PARENT-AND-STUDENT CONVERSATIONS
Ongoing conversations will help avoid normalizing concerning behavior. Suggested conversation topics include:

+ Respecting the health and safety of all Auburn University students
+ Out of classroom behavior
+ Social activities connected to alcohol
+ Football season, specifically tailgating activities
+ Bars within close proximity to campus
+ Safe transportation options

The Be The Creed campaign encourages the practice of positive-decision making. Be The Creed was inspired by the Auburn Creed, written in 1943 by Dr. George Petrie. The campaign encourages responsibility, integrity, and respect – all values included in the Auburn Creed.

Creed Ambassadors are motivated and responsible students who promote good decision making by distributing Be The Creed promotional items and assisting with events.

The Be The Creed Honoree award is presented every spring during Creed Week. This award honors a student who has exemplified the Auburn Creed.

Our mission remains to establish a supportive environment and a welcoming campus culture for all veteran students, active duty military personnel, guardsmen, reservists, survivors, their spouses, dependents, faculty and staff. We strive to provide quality critical support for our veterans founded on the premise that the challenges faced by veterans may be addressed through a combination of services emphasizing academics, camaraderie, and wellness and assist in their progress toward completing their academic degree.

The Auburn Student Veterans Association promotes the general welfare of all veterans attending Auburn University and continues serving our country through community service, charitable events and the betterment of the Auburn community.
Students living on campus have a higher fall semester GPA and higher retention to sophomore year than those living off campus.

NEIGHBORHOODS

OUR MISSION
Auburn University Housing cultivates and supports living environments rooted in tradition with a commitment to providing well-maintained residence halls that are safe, welcoming, and inclusive. Our staff foster holistic student development to prepare residents for success in a global society.

NEIGHBORHOODS

- Hill East
  - Boyd, Duncan, Hall M, Hollified & Knapp
- Hill North
  - Dobbs, Dunn, Graves & Toomer
- Hill South

- South Donahue Hall

FALL MOVE-IN
Students living on campus will select their Fall 2019 housing assignment in the Spring. Students will be able to access information about their roommate and will receive information about how to register for a move in day. After completing your move-in day registration, you will be given a check in time at a later date. Parents and students are encouraged to download the 2019 Move-In Guide from the Auburn Guides app to get detailed information about move-in. To learn more about what to bring (and not bring) to campus, visit our website.

DID YOU KNOW?
Students living on campus have a higher fall semester GPA and higher retention to sophomore year than those living off campus.

- About 2/3 of the freshman class live on campus
- All residence halls are alcohol and smoke free
- Faculty-in-Residence live in the Village and sponsor programs for all residents.

ABOUT THE HALL STAFF

- RA: Each hall has at least two Resident Assistants (RAs). RAs help students adjust to college life and learn to live cooperatively with others.
- GAC: Each neighborhood RA staff is supervised by a Graduate Area Coordinator (GAC) who lives on campus.
- AC: Each residential area is supervised by an Area Coordinator (AC), a professional staff member who lives on campus.

HALL STAFF ARE HERE TO HELP YOU!
Want to meet others? Want to get involved? Roommate or suitemate challenges? Need a study partner? Questions about residence hall rules or safety procedures? Concerned about someone? Your RA and GAC have the answer to all these questions.

AREA OFFICES:
Each residential area (Hill, Quad, Village, Cambridge, & South Donahue) has a centrally located area office that is open Monday - Friday from 8 AM - 11 PM. The office is staffed by RAs, GACs, and the ACs for the area. The office serves as your one stop shop for all of your needs related to living on campus.

DID YOU KNOW?
Students living on campus have a higher fall semester GPA and higher retention to sophomore year than those living off campus.
All vehicles, including bicycles and motorcycles, that park on AU campus must be registered with the Parking Services office.

Registration for student parking permissions opens in early July and closes the Friday before classes begin. Specific dates and times for registration will be sent via e-mail, so keep a close check on your Tigermail.

There is somewhat limited parking on campus. Parking Services provides a number of alternative modes of transportation including bike share and ride share programs. Be sure to check out our website and social media accounts for more information.

Parking zones are enforced Monday-Friday 7:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. and residence parking zones are enforced 24/7.

Auburn University Parking Services is paperless! We use license plate recognition to verify parking lot eligibility and we issue E-citations (emailed citations) if you are found in violation.

Regular daytime line operates Monday-Friday 7:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m. (Fall/Spring) and 7:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. (Summer).

The Night Transit provides a return trip home to all off-campus day stops from the main transit hub at the Student Center and operates Monday – Friday 6:15 p.m. – 10:00 p.m. (Fall/Spring) and 5:15 p.m. – 9:00 p.m. (Summer).

All buses seat 34 passengers and if needed, an additional 10 passengers can stand. In addition to each bus being wheelchair accessible, passengers whom like to cycle can attach their bicycles onto the racks fitted on the front of each bus.

Save yourself the hassle of searching for a parking space - join us on a Tiger Transit bus to and from class!

Download the TransLoc Rider app to see where the buses are and follow us on our social media accounts to see announcements.
Three methods to receive your Tiger Card

- Students that utilized the self-upload photo option at auburn.edu/tigercard at least three business days prior to their orientation session will receive their card at the designated times during their orientation.

- Students can receive their card by visiting the Tiger Card Office’s satellite location to take a photo during their orientation session.

- Students can receive their card by visiting the Tiger Card Office when they arrive on campus to begin classes.

To receive your Tiger Card, you will need to provide a valid form of ID such as a current driver’s license, passport, military ID, etc. There is a $25 charge to the student’s eBill for their card. Please visit our website to learn about all of the functions of your Tiger Card!

Mobile Tiger Card

Students can now download a mobile version of their Tiger Card at aub.ie/tigercardapp. To activate the app, students must have at least one printed Tiger card prior to utilizing mobile features.

Everyone on campus needs to practice preventative cybersecurity measures to keep our campus safe and to make sure your own personal data is protected. Some key tips are to use anti-virus software, protect your password, keep your software up-to-date, practice safe browsing, use two-factor authentication, and watch for phishing.

Anti-Virus Software

Auburn University policy states that all computers connecting to the AU network must have anti-virus software. Links for Microsoft Security Essentials and Sophos, two free anti-virus programs, are listed on AU Install - auburn.edu/download.

Protect Your Password

Auburn provides a free subscription to LastPass for students, faculty, and staff. You can store complex passwords, security questions, hints, and other useful information to protect your account. You can sign up at lastpass.com/auburn. And even with a password vault, make sure to use these tips to help protect your password and accounts.

- Don’t share your username and password with anyone
- Choose a long, strong password (use UPPERCASE and lowercase letters, numbers, and special characters)
- Don’t use personal info like your username, pet’s name, phone number, or date of birth in your password
- Change your password regularly (in MyAccount)
- Don’t use your Auburn login info on non-Auburn accounts

For more information, visit https://aub.ie/cybersecurity.

Forgot Your Password?

If you forget your password, you can reset it yourself with MyAccount or contact the IT Service Desk (see the previous page for contact details).

Software Updates

To maintain the integrity of your computer, regularly install software updates.

Peer to Peer (P2P)

Due to the security vulnerabilities, legality issues, and bandwidth availability, peer-to-peer file sharing for students over AU wireless networks has been disabled.

Use a Virtual Private Network (VPN)

A VPN provides a secure two-way communication tunnel to the Auburn University network. This connection requires Cisco AnyConnect VPN software, an Auburn account, and 2-factor authentication. You can find out more at aub.ie/cybersecurity.

2-Factor Authentication

2-factor authentication is the process of requiring an individual to provide their login credentials AND proof of identity via a secondary device, such as a smartphone, before granting access to an online resource. Auburn uses Duo as its 2FA system to secure online systems and resources. Set up DUO by visiting auburn.edu/2factor.

Phishing Scams

Don’t become a victim; learn the warning signs of a phishing scam.

- Urgent, mandatory language threatening account suspension or something similar
- Generic greetings like “Dear User”
- Links that don’t match the expected URL or links that ask for login credentials but don’t have the lock icon in the address bar
- Poor grammar and spelling
- Requests for personal information like social security number or bank account (Auburn will NOT ask for your personal information via email)
- Requests to purchase gift cards immediately and text or email the code back to the sender with promise of reimbursement

Learn more at auburn.edu/phishing.

Visit aub.ie/cybersecurity for more tips!
Club Sports at Auburn University are student organizations designed to promote good sportsmanship, skill development, and athletic competition. Sports range from rugby, handball, tennis, and lacrosse, to bass fishing, sailing, and cricket.

Group fitness classes provide a safe and versatile environment for participants of all skill levels. 125+ weekly classes are led by trained instructors and include Night Cycling, BollyX, Yoga, TRX®, INSANITY®, Zumba, Tiger Pump, Butts and Guts, and more!

Auburn Outdoors

Outdoor workshops, adventure trips, indoor climbing, and rentals are available from Auburn Outdoors. Trips include camping, backpacking, paddling, climbing, biking, and more. Use our tools to repair your bike, or visit our rental shop to prepare for your next trip.

Convocation is from the Latin word for “calling together” and our assembly will formally welcome you to the Auburn University family as a member of the 2019 first-year class. Convocation will serve as the official kickoff to your career at Auburn. Official class T-shirts, class pins, and a free meal are provided afterwards for attendees.

Make plans to attend the Convocation Ceremony on August 18 at 4:30 p.m., the night before classes start, in the Auburn Arena.

All first-year students including transfer and freshmen are required to attend.

For more details, go to auburn.edu/convocation.
Why is our LEGACY LASTING?

Because your Auburn experience rests upon the shoulders of alumni who came before you — men and women who believed in hard work.

Their gifts to Auburn ensure the classrooms you sit in, the educators who teach you, and the programs you participate in are second to none.

Philanthropy provides essential resources that keep Auburn in the lead — and give you a college experience that’s exceptional.

Getting Involved

For the Freshmen
“Getting involved on campus has been what’s made my Auburn experience truly special. Being from out-of-state, I didn’t know many people here when I arrived as a freshman, and I decided to dive in and join a couple different organizations. That decision was one of the best I’ve made in college and has had a big effect on my experience. It’s allowed me to meet and connect with new people, gain confidence, and pick up a lot of skills that will translate to my career later on. Whether it’s greek life, a leadership organization, or any of the 500+ options Auburn has to offer, anything that makes the campus feel a little smaller and more connected will make your time here a lot more enjoyable.”

Charlie Shorey, Rome, GA

For the Transfer Students
“When I think back on my time at Auburn, my favorite memories are the times I got to spend with my friends, most of which I made from joining organizations on campus. Getting involved is a great way to build relationships with people who have similar interests as you, as well as give back to the Auburn community. Every semester there are hundreds of opportunities to join an organization and there is even an Honors Society specifically for transfer students called Tau Sigma. Auburn is a big campus but it is never too late to get plugged-in and find the people you will make lifelong memories with.”

Alexis Burgos, Franklin, TN

For the Families
“Many parents often tell students to wait a semester before getting involved because they want their student to first focus on their studies. I would give the exact opposite advice! Getting involved right away was the best thing I could have done. When you find something you really care about, that will help you find friends, support systems and help you manage your time which will help you perform better as a student. Find what you are truly passionate about and stick with it. Find one, maybe two groups that truly make you happy and put 110% into it. You’d be surprised how much positive encouragement and motivation involvement can provide.”

Mary Margaret McCarthy, Savannah, GA
Senior, Management

Tigers in a New Territory

Top 10 Things to Do While at Auburn:

1. Eat at every dining hall/food truck on campus. There are so many unique options throughout campus. Don’t let proximity keep you from finding the hidden gems the university has to offer.

2. Take advantage of all of the free programming. Why pay money when there are so many great FREE events on campus? Lots of student organizations and events will entice you with free food. Enjoy it! Throughout the year, University Programming Council (UPC) also hosts many speakers, comedians, campus-wide concerts, and movies for free. Check out auburn.edu/upc for their calendar of events.

3. Experience Game Day. From tailgating to seeing the eagle soar before kickoff, you can truly feel the spirit of Auburn. Don’t have a ticket? Don’t worry, there are still lots of things to do before kickoff, from Tiger Walk to hanging out with alumni in the tailgating areas.

4. Take a picture with Aubie!

5. Hang out outside. Throw a Frisbee around on Samford Lawn, study on the green spaces by the Quad, or picnic at Chewacla State Park. During the fall and spring months, the weather is beautiful and you should take advantage of any free time you have outdoors.

6. Get local. Check out the shops, restaurants and events in Downtown Auburn and Opelika, get a glass of Toomer’s Lemonade, and experience the local festivals and fairs in the area. Spend some time being a tourist in your own city and see what makes Auburn & Opelika so special.

7. Explore Alabama. There is so much to see and do in the state from Historical Civil War Museums to the beautiful beaches along the Gulf of Mexico to shopping in Montgomery or Birmingham. Take a day trip and get to know a new part of the state.

8. Take a road trip home with one of your friends from Alabama. There is no better way to experience Alabama than to see it through the eyes of one of your friends and, if you are lucky, you may even get a good home-cooked meal out of it!

9. Step out of your comfort zone. By traveling so far from home for college, you get the opportunity to start anew and try different things. Check out an organization that may be different than what you did in high school, experience various religious services, or eat lunch with someone new. College is a great time to explore the diversity that is out there.

10. Leave your mark. Branch out, discover who you truly are and get involved. Start a club, stand up for what you believe in, or give back to the community. Whatever you choose to do with your time here at Auburn, make it count.

Check out fye.auburn.edu/outofstate for more tips for Out-of-State Students.
Tau Sigma
Transfer Student Honor Society

Tau Sigma is an academic honor society designed specifically to recognize and promote the academic excellence and involvement of transfer students.

To join, you must have at least a 3.5 GPA or be in the top 20% of the incoming transfer student population during your first semester at Auburn. Membership invitations will be mailed in the spring of 2020.

For more info, contact Melissa Dunn (Tau Sigma Advisor) at dunnmes@auburn.edu.

Transfer Student Organization

Transfer Student Organization (TSO) is an organization created for all incoming transfer students at Auburn University. With the help of the First Year Experience Office, this organization was created in order to help transfers, just like you, get involved on Auburn’s campus.

To join or for more info, please send an e-mail to dunnmes@auburn.edu.
STUDENT INVOLVEMENT

with a campus organization is a great way for you to meet others with similar interests. It also serves as a learning tool to build your co-curricular transcript and skills that future employers seek.

All student organizations are designed to maximize and enhance the Auburn experience building on the academic knowledge you will learn in the classroom. Student Involvement is home to more than 500 student organizations on campus which are divided among the five branches of the office: Leadership Programs, Service Programs, Student Organizations, Student Governance, and Student Programming.

The service branch of Student Involvement offers students the ability to develop and explore their leadership skills while serving our campus and community. Service Programs offers a wide variety of programs from campus-wide service projects to reaching out into the community and beyond. Students seeking an organization that will allow them to grow as a leader or serve others will find their path leads them to this branch.

57 opportunities to volunteer weekly

1,384 students volunteered in the one-day service project

$502,195 raised to benefit Children's Miracle Network Hospitals

164 participants in 13 service trips during school breaks

255,916 pounds of food donated to the East Alabama Food Bank
Auburn University's Student Government Association seeks to serve, promote, and unify Auburn students and the Auburn community. SGA leaders work to represent the student body by advocating to campus administration and city officials for students’ desires and needs, while also providing a variety of campus events and initiatives to enhance the Auburn student experience. There are a variety of ways to get involved with SGA. Apply for Freshman Forum in August, or attend SGA’s traditional events like Hey Day, the Homecoming Parade, and Creed Week. Run in the SGA elections to become the President of your academic school or college, a Student Senator, or an SGA executive officer. Apply for an SGA Cabinet position in March, or simply share your feedback on any topic using Auburn Answers at auburnanswers.org. Follow SGA’s social media or visit auburn.edu/sga to learn more!

For over 100 years, the Auburn bands have demonstrated excellence in performance all over the world. Whether it is the Auburn University Marching Band stepping down the field, or the Symphonic Winds giving another masterful performance, the Auburn bands continue their rich tradition year after year.

SYMPHONIC WINDS
The Symphonic Winds, conducted by Dr. Rick Good, is the premier performing ensemble of the Auburn University Bands. A select group of performers that meets in the Fall and Spring, the Symphonic Winds performs a broad and diverse repertoire of standard and contemporary band literature. Membership in the Symphonic Winds is by audition only, and it is open to any Auburn University student regardless of major. Scholarships are available, and one hour of academic credit is awarded for participation. This credit may be used as an elective in any curriculum.

CONCERT BAND
The Concert Band, conducted by Dr. Corey Spurlin is the second performing ensemble of the Auburn University Band Department. A select group of performers that meets in the Fall and Spring, the Concert Band performs a broad and diverse repertoire of standard and contemporary band literature. Membership in the Concert Band is by audition only, and it is open to any Auburn University student regardless of major. Scholarships are available, and one hour of academic credit is awarded for participation. This credit may be used as an elective in any curriculum.

CAMPUS BAND
The Campus Band is conducted by the band staff and is open to any Auburn University Student with high school band experience. No audition is required to participate in this ensemble. One hour of academic credit is awarded for participation.

JAZZ BAND
The Jazz Band is open by audition to all Auburn students with high school band experience. The jazz band rehearses two times per week and performs concerts each semester. One hour of academic credit is optionally awarded for participation. This credit may be used as an elective in any curriculum. If you are interested in joining the AU Jazz Band, contact Dr. Michael Pendowski at mjp0023@auburn.edu.
For over a century, the Auburn University Marching Band has captivated audiences across the nation with spectacular performances. Whether marching before the home crowd or away, the Auburn Band has attained a position of national distinction and a reputation for excellence second to none.

Throughout its history, one of the primary goals of the Auburn University Marching Band has been to foster the Auburn Spirit. With more than thirty performances and exhibitions starting early in the fall and extending through the bowl season, the Auburn Band does exactly that.

The Band is under the direction of Dr. Corey Spurlin. It is open by audition only to any Auburn student with high school band experience. Members represent virtually every school and curriculum on the Auburn campus and hail from over twenty states as well as throughout Alabama. The marching band rehearses Tuesday through Friday (3:30 - 4:50) and before games on Saturday. One hour of academic credit is awarded for participation. This credit may be used as an elective in any curriculum.

The Basketball Pep Band, directed by Dr. Corey Spurlin, is a select group of brass and percussion players that perform at all men’s and women’s home basketball games, as well as NCAA and SEC tournaments. Members are chosen by audition each October from the marching band membership. One hour of academic credit is awarded for participation. This credit may be used as an elective in any curriculum.

The Basketball Pep Band is divided into two groups - the Orange Band and the Blue Band - of 30 players each. These two groups generally alternate performances at basketball games. The pep band offers students a chance to support the Auburn University Basketball teams, as well as the opportunity to travel with these teams during tournament season. The pep band recently traveled to San Diego, New Orleans, New York City, San Francisco, and Tampa. The band has also ventured to cities such as Indianapolis, Chattanooga, Seattle, Atlanta, Nashville, Boulder (CO), and Stoors (CT).

Students interested in participating in any of the Auburn University Bands should visit the joining page of the AU Bands website (www.band.auburn.edu). All students who would like to participate in the marching band should complete the membership profile found in the Membership Database on the AU Bands website. Students should then register for marching band (MUSE 1100) during Camp War Eagle and report to the AUMB preseason camp (August) at the assigned time. Students will complete a brief audition at the preseason camp to determine if they meet the minimum skill level required for participation in the AUMB. Percussionists audition at a precamp held in May, and auxiliary units audition at a special all-day event held on campus in the Spring. Most students who have participated in a high school band program are more than qualified for membership in the AUMB.

The Auburn University Band Department offers scholarships to deserving students (both music majors and non music majors). These scholarships are dependent on participation in our various ensembles. The availability and amount of these scholarships vary from year to year and they are distributed based on playing ability and instrumentation needs for each ensemble.

Community Life

For the Freshmen

“The city of Auburn is an amazing community to move into. The support and enthusiasm the residents of Auburn have for students truly embodies the Auburn Family. Spending time off campus can be so refreshing, and the atmosphere in the city of Auburn is perfect for this. Whether it’s getting involved with service organizations like The Big Event who serve local community members, becoming connected to a church community, or interacting with business owners around town, there are so many ways to get connected to the city of Auburn.”

*Whitney Say, Baton Rouge, LA
Senior, Biomedical Sciences*

For the Transfer Students

“While Auburn’s campus is of considerable size and has a lot going on, there is so much to explore around the Auburn-Opelika area. Experiencing events off campus can really make your time at Auburn more meaningful. The citizens of Auburn and its surrounding areas are happy to share their time and interests with students. Personally, I love exploring a new restaurant each week or sitting on Samford Lawn when it’s nice outside. I always have so much fun shopping in Tiger Town, enjoying some great eats in downtown Opelika, or attending events like holiday parades and festivals. There is always something to do and a friendly face to have encounters with.”

*Mallory Henderson, Mobile, AL
Junior, Supply Chain Management/Spanish*

For the Families

“As an out-of-state student, I don’t get to go home or see my family as often as some people do. Luckily my family loves coming down to Auburn to visit me. During the fall we love to tailgate before games and go to Momma Goldberg’s to get one of the best sandwiches you will ever have. When they come in the spring, it is often less busy and we can do even more things, like going to Toomer’s Drugs to get one of their famous lemonades or limeades. We also have a chance to explore more of the downtown area, which has a ton of cool shops and places to eat! They love coming to visit me because they really get to feel like they’re part of the Auburn Family too.”

Parent & Family Programs is your one-stop-shop for all questions while your student is at Auburn University. Located in Student Affairs, Parent & Family Programs is the one office on campus designed specifically to serve you.

MEET THE STAFF:
Tess Gibson joined Parent & Family Programs as Coordinator in May 2014. Tess is a two-time alumna from Auburn University. She earned her Bachelor of Arts in Political Science with a concentration in Public Administration, and then completed her Masters in Administration of Higher Education. Prior to her time working with Parent & Family Programs, Tess served as a graduate assistant in both First Year Experience and Student Involvement.

AUBURN UNIVERSITY PARENTS’ ASSOCIATION:
Participating in the Auburn University Parents’ Association (AUPA) is an excellent way to stay connected as a part of the Auburn Family and support the education of your student. As a member, you will receive information regarding important dates, deadlines and events that are relevant to you and your student.

Through activities such as Home Sweet Auburn and Fall Family Weekend, the Parents’ Association provides you with opportunities to meet Auburn administrators and faculty, socialize with other parents, and actively participate in the Auburn Family.

BENEFITS OF MEMBERSHIP:
Joining the AUPA is free! Here are some of the benefits of membership:
- Access to the Auburn University Family Portal, customized to your needs and interests.
- Access to dedicated regional AUPA Board representative.
- Higher student retention rates from first to second year.
- Increased 4-year student graduation rates.
- Eligibility to serve on the AUPA Board of Directors.

HOW TO JOIN:
- Online at www.auburn.edu/joinaupa.
- Parent & Family Programs guide within the free mobile application, Auburn Guides.
HOME SWEET AUBURN
Join the Office of Parent & Family Programs for Home Sweet Auburn, an event welcoming parents and students to Auburn University and the city of Auburn. Through collaboration with the Auburn Chamber of Commerce, Student Government Association, and University Program Council, Home Sweet Auburn will introduce you to all of the fantastic places to eat in town. Home Sweet Auburn will take place on Thursday, August 15, 2019, from 4:00 – 6:00 p.m. on the second floor of the Student Center nearest the Foy Information Desk.

FALL FAMILY WEEKEND
This annual event serves as an opportunity for families to experience campus life while attending activities during Homecoming weekend. Fall Family Weekend will take place September 13-15, 2019. Registration begins on Monday, July 29, and will close on Sunday, September 8. Register online at www.auburn.edu/aupa.

In the past, events range from lunch with the Office of the Registrar and Jordan-Hare Stadium Locker Room tours to Tailgating with the Exploratory Advising Center. Last year, over 2,200 family members visited the plains for the AUPA Tailgate, making the largest tailgate on the plains!
How can you help your student succeed at Auburn?

SETTING EXPECTATIONS WITH YOUR STUDENT:

It is important to set expectations with your student each semester. This helps to proactively prevent any confusion. Key areas that are important to discuss are grades, schedule, course load, and involvement opportunities. When setting expectations, keep the following things in mind:

- Be realistic. If your student was a B student in high school, it is not likely they will earn a 4.0 each semester – especially their first semester.
- Be adventurous. This is important when thinking of extracurricular activities. Auburn has over 500 student organizations; encourage your student to try something new!
- Be consistent. Get in the routine of setting expectations each semester. This should become a consistent process for you and your student.

COLLEGE CONTRACT FAMILY COMMITMENT:

Attending college is a tremendous privilege, but there is also significant responsibility and financial obligation. It is important that all parties involved clearly understand their obligations. This college contract outlines the responsibilities that both students and parents (or guardians) have to ensure that expectations for the upcoming semester are met. Please use the page to the right as a sample college contract.

I LOVE YOU, GO TO CLASS.

This one is simple. End every conversation with, “I love you, go to class.” One of the key factors of student success is whether or not they are regularly attending class. This simple phrase serves as a gentle reminder of the importance of attending class. It may sound silly, but each year we have parents let us know that they use this little trick, and it makes a huge difference!

HOW ARE YOU GOING TO HANDLE THAT?

As a parent, it is so easy to swoop in and save the day. Now that your student is in college, it is time to perform the tough task of letting your student start to figure things out on their own. Development and maturity come from thinking critically to solve problems.

Rather than solving the problem for them, it is important to ask questions that are supportive and encourage them to find a solution. A great thing to say is, “How are you going to handle that?” Through asking this open-ended question, your student is encouraged to have an open dialogue with you to discuss options of how to solve the situation. Your student will grow from learning how to handle problems on their own. When your daughter’s roommate borrows her favorite sweater without asking, or when your son forgets that he has a paper due tomorrow morning, they will learn valuable problem-solving skills.

CONGRATULATIONS!
NOW YOU ARE READY TO PREPARE ANOTHER CONTRACT FOR NEXT SEMESTER!
Homework for Parents

Being the parent of a college student is not an easy task. Below is a homework assignment that will help prepare both you and your student for a smooth transition and a successful year ahead!

1. JOIN THE AUBURN UNIVERSITY PARENTS’ ASSOCIATION (AUPA).
   The AUPA is a great way to stay up-to-date with what is going on at Auburn. By joining you will have access to the Family Portal that will customize relevant Auburn information to fit your needs and interests.

2. COMPLETE THE COLLEGE CONTRACT WITH YOUR STUDENT.
   Take time to have a discussion with your student about what is expected next year. Then, mutually sign the agreement before the fall semester begins.

3. FILL OUT THE SEMESTER BUDGET WORKSHEET.
   Know exactly where the money is going each semester. Plan out how much your student should spend and save. After the first semester, you can readjust based on the numbers.

4. CONNECT TO YOUR STUDENT IN THE FAMILY PORTAL.
   Membership in AUPA gives you access to the Family Portal and the opportunity to connect to your student. Through this connection, you can access grades, schedule, bills, and more. To request a connection, visit familyportal.auburn.edu and create an account. Once created, click the graduation cap in the top right corner to initiate the request. Remember – your student must be registered for classes in order to create a connection.

5. UPDATE EMERGENCY CONTACT INFORMATION.
   Encourage your student to fill out contact information should an emergency ever occur. To update information, your student can fill out the My Contacts form within the Campus Life tab of AU Access.

6. BECOME AN AUTHORIZED USER ON YOUR STUDENT’S EBILL ACCOUNT.
   Though the Family Portal will allow for you to view your student’s financial information, becoming an eBill Authorized User will allow for you to pay bills. Your student can add you as an authorized user through AU Access.

7. ATTEND HOME SWEET AUBURN.
   Home Sweet Auburn is the perfect last hoorah for you and your student to be together before they begin classes this fall. The event will follow move-in on August 15.

8. PLAN A TRIP FOR FALL FAMILY WEEKEND.
   Mark your calendar for September 13-15 for a weekend of fun events and a tailgate three hours prior to the Kent State football game.

* Instructions on all homework assignments and extra credit opportunities can be found at auburn.edu/aupa.

COMMUNICATION TIMELINE:
At certain points in the year, there will be issues on the forefront of your student's mind. August is all about transition. Whether your student is a freshman or senior, each year is a new one, and everyone gets the chance to start over with a new academic year. During November, your student may be getting burned out. Talk about things in their classes that are exciting them and ask about how they are preparing for final exams. February and March revolve around finding a place to live for the upcoming year. Discuss whether or not your son wants to live on campus or off, alone or with roommates, etc. Regardless of the conversations, always ask open-ended questions. Questions that require a yes or no answer are going to get a yes or no answer. For better conversations, ask about things that are going on in their lives and on campus to give you more common ground to talk.

HOMESICKNESS:
Homesickness is experiencing a longing for home during a period of absence. This is a feeling that your student may face during college. For many students, this is the first time they have been away from home for an extended period of time, and it is very common to miss family and friends from back home. If you think your student is homesick, encourage them to seek involvement opportunities. Joining an organization, attending University Program Council events, or even talking to a neighbor in class is a great way to meet fellow students. It is amazing what making a few friends will do to help distract your student from missing home.

Also consider sending a thoughtful care package to let your student know that you miss them as well. Providing a little piece of home can help ease the sadness.

We know that you love to have your student home, but returning home can often prolong homesickness. If you feel as though your student is coming home too often, set a schedule with your student for trips. If they come home on an off weekend during football in the beginning of the semester, challenge them to stay at school until the next away game, or Thanksgiving break. After all, your student has to be on campus in order to meet friends and find opportunities for involvement.

If your student doesn't seem homesick, don't worry! The transition from high school to college is a huge one, and there is a lot on your student's plate. Your student may be more focused on acclimating to this new life rather than missing home – which is completely fine.

SHARE RESOURCES:
This tip piggybacks on asking "How are you going to handle that?" As a parent, you may be more concerned with resources on campus than your student is. Exploring campus resources as a parent is great and helps connect you to the university. When it is mid-semester and your daughter has her first big history exam, tell her about opportunities such as Study Partners and Supplemental Instruction rather than signing her up and telling her that she is going. Auburn has numerous resources to help your student succeed, but your student has to want to utilize these resources in order for them to help.

It is always best for communication with professors to be with students and not with parents. If your student is facing difficulties in class, encourage them to visit their professor's office hours, which are listed on the course syllabus.
NEWFOUND FREEDOM:
For the first time in your student’s lives, they are completely on their own. This can be overwhelming for some students and terrifying for most parents. Decisions that you have helped your student make their entire lives are now up to them. Your student is now deciding what they are going to eat and when, what their sleep schedule will be, and how much time they are spending watching television. As they adjust to their newfound freedom and schedule, be flexible.

We now live in an age of technology at our fingertips. It is easy to pick up the phone and call your student or send a quick text at any time during the day. Know that as your student is adjusting to their schedule, they will find times in their day that are not as good as others for catching up. After the first few weeks of school, talk to your student about ideal times to call during the week. Setting this schedule early on will help both you and your student have consistency in your communication, as well as keep you from calling during the middle of class.

It is completely fine to give your suggestions, but know that trust is a must, and your student will soon figure out what works best for them. When your student comes home for the first time, they are likely going to try to live the same way they do at college (not doing dishes, not having a curfew, not having a set time to be up in the mornings, etc.). If there are important rules in your home, make certain you remind your student about them before they return home for a visit.

BUILDING A TRUSTING RELATIONSHIP:
With students having a newfound freedom, building a trusting relationship can be difficult at first. Know that having trust as the foundation for your relationship, on both sides, is critical in having a positive college experience. Your student is much more likely to be open and honest with you if you support and trust their decisions.

EXPECT CHANGE:
It is inevitable. Your student will change while they are in college. As a parent, your role in this process is to help them to the best of your ability. College years are formative years. Although it may be drastic or minimal, your student is gaining a larger perspective in a mature environment that will stretch them. Anticipating these ahead of time will help both you and your student as these changes begin to take place.

TRUST YOUR GUT:
As a parent, you have known your student longer than anyone else. If you have a gut feeling that something is wrong, don’t ignore that feeling. When you check in with your son or daughter and something big seems wrong, please call our office. We can direct you to resources that can help.
STUDENT COURSE LOAD AND SCHEDULE:
The typical student course load is 15 credit hours. For your student to graduate on time, it is important that they are taking 15 hours every semester. If a student falls below 12 credit hours, it could affect their status with financial aid, scholarships, and eligibility to serve in organization leadership positions.

The maximum number of credit hours that students may take in one semester is 18 credit hours. Because you want your student to graduate in four years, it is important to consider these limitations and have a conversation about how many hours your student is able to take per semester in order to graduate in a timely manner. Also keep in mind there will be no charge for credit hours exceeding 12 hours.

STUDENT CLASSIFICATION:
- Freshman: 30 or fewer semester hours
- Sophomore: 31 – 60 semester hours
- Junior: 61 – 90 semester hours
- Senior: 91 or more semester hours

Classification is important when registering for classes as well as for scholarship consideration. The classification may determine whether your student is eligible to take needed classes.

COURSE SYLLABUS:
In every class, your student will receive a syllabus, which outlines the entire class for your student. The class attendance policy, required textbooks, and assignments are located on the syllabus. Talk to your student at the beginning of each semester about the courses that they are taking. Encourage them to plan out their classes by mapping out assignments. Not only will this help teach your student time management, it will also show them when busier times in the semester will be so they can plan accordingly.

CLASS ATTENDANCE POLICY:
One of the most important factors in academic success is attending class and ensuring that your student is mentally present while there. Attending a class and browsing the internet the entire time is the same as not attending the class at all. Not only is it crucial to make this habit early on, your student’s grade depends on it.

Individual attendance policies are left to the discretion of the professor and are clearly listed in each course syllabus. Students who fail to comply with course attendance policy risk earning an “F” in a course, or it can be classified as an “FA” on their academic transcript, which means failure to attend.

Though attending class is the foundation of academic success, unforeseen circumstances may arise. If this happens, remind your student to contact his or her professors as soon as possible.
HOW TO CALCULATE YOUR GPA:
Your student’s grade point average, or GPA, is their cumulative grade average. Auburn University uses a 4.0 grading scale. The following grades and the quality hours associated with them are used for determining the grade point average. In order to determine student’s GPA, multiply the grade quality points by course hours; then divide by the total number of hours.

A (superior) equals 4.0
B (good) equals 3.0
C (acceptable) equals 2.0
D (passing) equals 1.0 (D is failing for graduate students)
F (failure) equals 0.0
FA (failure/absences) equals 0.0
WF (withdrawn failing) equals 0.0

COURSE ADD POLICY:
Within the first five days of classes each fall and spring semester, your student can add themselves to a course through through the ‘My Academics’ tab of AuAccess. After the fifth class day, if your student wishes to add a course, they will need to go directly to the academic department to register for that request.

The university allows each department the ability to add students to courses though the 15th day of classes. As a practical matter, if a student wishes to add a course, it is strongly recommended that they do so no later than the first day of the semester.

ACADEMIC WARNING AND SUSPENSION:

Academic Warning occurs when a student’s cumulative GPA falls below a 2.0. If your student is placed on Academic Warning, they must do one of two things in order to avoid Academic Suspension. Your student must earn a semester GPA of 2.2 or higher, or earn a cumulative GPA based on the table below:

- If your student is unable to meet the requirements of this scale, they are placed on Academic Suspension. During this time, your student may not be enrolled at the university for a minimum of one semester, not including the summer semester. If your student is placed on Academic Suspension for a second time, they must wait two semesters to re-enroll.
- A student who receives a third Academic Suspension will be expelled from Auburn.

DROP POLICY:

In the university’s academic calendar, three periods of each fall and spring semester are noted:

- Within the first 15 days of the semester your student may drop a course online, receive a refund if necessary, and the course will not become part of the student’s permanent transcript. Note that a $100 fee may be charged for each course dropped in the 6th - 15th days of class.
- Between the 16th day of the semester and the withdrawal deadline, your student may drop the course online, but cannot receive a refund and the course will be recorded on your student’s permanent transcript as withdrawn. The withdrawal deadline for Fall 2019 is November 1. Refer to the academic calendar per semester for the most up-to-date deadlines.
- A course may be dropped after the withdrawal deadline only under unusual conditions and with special permission. Requests for medical withdrawals (serious physical and/or psychological illness of the student) must be verified and approved by Accessibility.

For summer semesters the academic calendar is modified.

WITHDRAWAL POLICY:

No grade penalty is assigned for withdrawing from a course on or before the withdrawal deadline. A student who withdraws from a course prior to the 15th class day will have no grade assignment; however after the first 15 days a “W” (withdrawn passing) grade will be recorded for the course.

A “WF” (withdrawal failing) occurs if your student officially dropped a course with the permission of their dean, but is failing at the time of withdrawal. If a “WF” is recorded, it is considered the same as an “F” and will be calculated as such.

For more information, view the policy on withdrawal and resignation at bulletin.auburn.edu.
STUDENT CONDUCT:
Auburn University Student Center, Suite 1115
255 Heisman Drive
auburn.edu/studentconduct
(334) 844-1305

Student Conduct is responsible for the administration of the Code of Student Conduct and provides a fair and educational student conduct process for students and student organizations. Student Conduct educates the Auburn University community about student’s responsibilities, rights, and expectations. Additionally, Dean’s Certification, or disciplinary clearance requests, are processed and completed by Student Conduct.

The most common violation of the Code of Student Discipline relates to the underage consumption/possession of an alcoholic beverage or public intoxication. Students found responsible for violating the alcohol policy may be required to participate in Tiger Education Screening Intervention (TESI), an Auburn University sponsored alcohol education program. Students could also be assigned community service or disciplinary probation. Students who are found in violation of the alcohol policy at an Auburn University athletic event will be removed from the event and may face the loss of student ticket privileges in addition to the above sanctions.

When students under the age of 21 are found responsible either for an alcohol or drug violation of the Code of Student Conduct, Student Conduct will notify parents/guardians in writing. The letter will contain information regarding the violation of the code that occurred.

Should your student be referred to Student Conduct, your best role is to serve as a support system and encourage them to take an active role in resolving the issue. Your son or daughter can be instrumental in improving the Auburn experience for all students by reporting inappropriate conduct. Parental involvement and support greatly increases the likelihood of a student reporting concerns to Student Conduct.

Student Conduct sponsors the campus-wide Be The Creed campaign. The campaign utilizes the existing Auburn Creed to promote good decision making, honesty, and respect among Auburn students. Students are able to actively participate in the campaign by applying to be a Creed Ambassador. Dr. George Petrie wrote the Creed, the Auburn family believes in the Creed, and we want all students to live the Creed.

STUDENT POLICY EHANDBOOK:
During your student’s time at Auburn, it is important to be familiar with the eHandbook and the policies that it outlines. You can view policies by searching for the Student Policy eHandbook at auburn.edu.

ACADEMIC HONESTY CODE:
At Auburn, we value honesty and integrity in all students. It is important to understand the Academic Honesty Code in order to ensure that your student never violates this policy. To review policies listed in the honesty code, please visit www.auburn.edu/studentpolicies.
Commonly referred to as "RBD," the Ralph Brown Draughon Library contains over 3.2 million volumes, 2.6 million government documents, 2.5 million microforms, and over 148,000 maps for students to utilize. The library is home to Academic Support, a Media and Digital Resource Laboratory, Special Collections and Archives, Miller Writing Center, and the Learning Commons. Library hours are extremely flexible to meet the needs of students and their schedules.

The Office of the Registrar assists students with a myriad of academic issues including registration, maintaining academic records, and processing transcripts.

Services offered through the Office of the Registrar:
- Assigns registration time tickets
- Provides a venue for adding and dropping classes
- Provides verification of enrollment, good standing, and degrees awarded
- Processes all documentation regarding in-state residency
- Provides information about student rights under the Family Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)

AUBURN CARES
Auburn University Student Center, Suite 1115
255 Heisman Drive
aucares.auburn.edu
(334) 844-1305

Many students experience difficulties during college from either academic or personal causes. Common stressors include medical, mental health, personal or family crisis, illness, or injury. These life events can interfere with a student’s ability to attain their goals, both inside and outside the classroom.

Auburn Cares works collaboratively with students to identify resources and develop personal action plans. Services offered include, but are not limited to: navigating campus and community resources, exploration of and referral for mental health concerns, coordination and follow-up during and after an illness or injury, financial hardship assistance, problem resolution, and crisis management. Auburn Cares also operates the Campus Food Pantry, which assists students struggling with food insecurity.

STUDENT COUNSELING & PSYCHOLOGICAL SERVICES
Auburn University Medical Clinic, Suite 2086
400 Lem Morrison Drive
auburn.edu/scps
(334) 844-5123

Student Counseling & Psychological Services (SCPS) provides comprehensive preventative and clinical mental health services to Auburn students. All enrolled Auburn University students are eligible for free psychological counseling. Psychiatric services are also available and may require utilization of your family or student’s health insurance. Both the counseling and psychiatric services of SCPS are intended to provide short-term assistance to students dealing with personal, mental health, and educational concerns that may be barriers to their academic progress.

ACCESSIBILITY
1228 Haley Center
351 W. Thach Concourse
accessibility.auburn.edu
(334) 844-2096

Accessibility provides academic accommodations to students with disabilities. In order to receive accommodations, the student must initiate and participate in the process of applying for and receiving accommodations.

This process begins with your student completing our online intake and FERPA forms which can be found in AU Access on the My Academics Tab > Academic Accommodations and Accessibility > Begin the Process for Accommodations. The next step is submitting disability documentation for our office to review. Once this occurs, we will email your student’s Tigermail account and request an appointment to establish accommodations.

VETERANS RESOURCE CENTER
217 Foy Hall
282 W. Thach Avenue
auburn.edu/veterans
(334) 844-8167

The mission of the Auburn University Veterans Resource Center (AUVRC) is to assist veterans, guardsmen, reservists, active duty, military dependents and survivors, who receive Veteran Affairs (VA) educational benefits, to transition successfully into both campus and community.

The AUVRC devotes timely and comprehensive support and a range of services for current and former military service members, including eligible military dependents, by collaborating with VA representatives, the AU community, and civilian-advocate organizations.
GREEK LIFE
Auburn University Student Center, Suite 1330
255 Heisman Drive
auburn.edu/greeklife
(334) 844-4600

Greek Life is home to 53 fraternity and sorority chapters that are all nationally recognized as members of the Interfraternity Council (IFC), Multicultural Greek Council (MGC), National Pan-Hellenic Council (NPHC), and National Panhellenic Council (Panhellenic). Over one-third of Auburn’s undergraduates are members of these groups.

Auburn University has a strict no-hazing policy. If your son or daughter joins an organization and you feel like hazing is happening, please contact Greek Life to make a confidential report. The more information you are able to provide, the better prepared Greek Life will be to initiate an investigation and make students safer.

STUDENT INVOLVEMENT
Auburn University Student Center, Suite 3130
255 Heisman Drive
auburn.edu/involve
(334) 844-4788

One of the best ways to make the university feel like home is by joining a student organization. Student Involvement offers a variety of organizations, leadership and service opportunities, and events for students to get involved.

The Service branch provides opportunities for students to serve the local community. In this area your student will find programs like AU Dance Marathon, Alternative Student Breaks, IMPACT, The BIG Event and Beat Bama Food Drive.

The Student Organizations branch is home to more than 500 student-run organizations on campus. These organizations range from academic to special interests and cultural groups.

The Student Governance branch is home to the Student Government Association (SGA). SGA works with administrators on campus to ensure that the students’ needs are being met while also providing programming activities for students. Auburn Answers, a feedback system implemented by SGA, allows students to submit their concerns regarding anything on campus.

The Student Programming branch houses University Program Council (UPC), a student-led programming board that brings a variety of free events to campus. Some of the most popular events are Welcome Week and Tiger Nights.

Student Leadership Programs includes Emerge, a dynamic leadership program aimed at helping Auburn students develop the leadership skills to lead on campus, in the community, and in their future career field through a variety of leadership building opportunities.

For a full list of organizations and events, visit www.auburn.edu/auinvolve. The Involvement Ambassadors serve as a resource for any student seeking opportunities for involvement. Drop in consultations occur Monday–Friday from 10 a.m.–2 p.m. in Student Center suite 3130.

CROSS CULTURAL CENTER FOR EXCELLENCE
Auburn University Student Center Suite 2101 and 2103
255 Heisman Drive
auburn.edu/diversity
(334) 844-2976

The Cross-Cultural Center was created to help facilitate an inclusive learning experience and provide multiple support services for ALL Auburn University students. The Cross-Cultural Center promotes student growth and engagement by providing programming, advocacy, dialogue, academic support, and mentoring to build collaborative and inclusive relationships; while establishing diversity as a core value at Auburn University.
STUDENT FINANCIAL SERVICES
203 Mary Martin Hall
211 West Thach Avenue auburn.edu/finaid
(334) 844-4634

Student Financial Services is home to Financial Aid, Cashiering, Billing, and Account Services. Students may view their Financial Aid requirements and awards on their My Finances page of AU Access. To provide parent access to student’s financial matters, students must complete the Financial Release Form on their My Finances page of AU Access. In addition to filling out the financial release form, students must make parents or family members an authorized user through eBill to give them access to their billing. It is important to have this conversation with your student prior to the first billing cycle, so you have a clear understanding of who will be making payments on the account.

eBill is the hub to all student bills at Auburn. This includes tuition and mandatory fees, dining plan, residence hall, parking tickets and other miscellaneous charges.

UNIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIPS
108 Mary Martin Hall
auburn.edu/scholarship
(334) 844-7570

Finding and applying for scholarships can be hard work. With the Auburn University Scholarship Opportunity Manager (AUSOM), it is much easier. Students can search and apply for scholarships, accept available offers, and more.

Current Auburn students must complete the scholarship application through AUSOM each year by the scholarship deadline to receive consideration for General and Departmental Scholarships for the upcoming academic year. To receive consideration for need-based scholarships each year, students must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) at fafsa.ed.gov. The FAFSA must be received by the financial aid priority deadline.

Students can find AUSOM on My Finances within AU Access. Additional information about AUSOM, including application completion and submission information, may be found on University Scholarship’s website at auburn.edu/ausom.

BUDGETING
Knowing how to budget for student’s college expenses is one of the most important aspects of sending your child to school. To view sample semester budgets, or to create your own, visit www.auburn.edu/aupa. Budgets can be found under the ‘Money Matters’ tab within ‘Resources.’

BANKING
Something that often falls through the cracks when sending your student to college is discussing who will handle the money. Your student needs access to a bank where they can make transactions, deposit and withdraw cash, and write checks if they plan on living somewhere with rent or split bills. A trick to finding the right bank is finding one that the student and parent both have access. It helps to have a physical bank location in the student’s hometown, as well as Auburn.

GRAND TOTAL
Auburn University Student Center, Suite 1206
255 Heisman Drive
auburn.edu/healthandwellness
(334) 844-1528

Health Promotion & Wellness Services provides resources to students, faculty, staff, and parents regarding health issues. The office has two Registered Dietitian/Nutritionists and a host of undergraduate Nutrition Team members on our staff to help with your student’s nutrition needs. Nutrition services for students include individual consultations, grocery store tours, dining hall tours, and group presentations. The Nutrition Team dietitians and will spend time with your student to discuss goals and potential barriers to accomplishing those goals.

Health Promotion & Wellness Services offers several resources for students abusing drugs and alcohol. Not only does this office provide information regarding drugs or alcohol, it also provides resources for those in recovery from addictions. Alcoholics and Narcotics Anonymous meetings as well as Self-Management and Recovery Training groups can offer that support.

If you fear your son or daughter has experienced sexual violence, stalking, harassment, or other sexual misconduct situations, refer him or her to Safe Harbor. Safe Harbor is a group of on-campus advocates who work directly with your student to provide support and information on survivor resources.

MEDICAL CLINIC
400 Lem Morrison Drive
auburn.edu/medical
(334) 844-4416

The Medical Clinic is the on-campus clinic for primary, preventative and urgent health care. The available on-site services include lab work, x-rays, chiropractic care, minor procedures, mental health, and women’s health. The Medical Clinic is available for appointments or walk-ins, and services are provided on a fee-for-service basis. Contact your insurance company to verify coverage for your student.

Students have 30 days from orientation to submit the REQUIRED Medical Information Forms. Please visit our website www.auburn.edu/medical and click on the “Forms and Records” tab for more information regarding the Medical Information Form. Students should notify the Medical Clinic of any chronic health conditions in order to provide the best possible care.
AUBURN UNIVERSITY
STUDENT PHARMACY
400 Lem Morrison Drive
Inside the Auburn University Medical Clinic auburn.edu/studentpharmacy
(334) 844-4641

If your student is feeling under the weather, they can stop by the Auburn University Student Pharmacy, conveniently located inside the Medical Clinic. The Student Pharmacy is the preferred pharmacy for the Auburn University Student Health Insurance plan which has lower medication co-pays. The pharmacy also accepts most major insurance cards (including Blue Cross Blue Shield of Alabama and Tricare). The pharmacy can charge all prescription charges and over-the-counter products to a student eBill. For questions regarding the student pharmacy, email austudentrx@auburn.edu.

DEPARTMENT OF CAMPUS SAFETY AND SECURITY
543 A Magnolia Avenue
auburn.edu/safety
(334) 844-8888

The Department of Campus Safety and Security strives to provide a safe and secure campus environment through educational programming, collaboration with university constituents, and provision of various safety and security services. Campus Safety and Security is responsible for the university’s comprehensive emergency management program, the Night Security Shuttle, which provides door-to-door transportation on campus at night; the campus security camera system; contract security services; and administration of the contract with the City of Auburn for police and fire services. The department maintains campus crime statistics and publishes the Annual Security and Fire Safety Report, available at aub.ie/SecurityReport.

Campus Safety and Security sends AU ALERT messages for campus emergencies requiring immediate action and to convey critical, time-sensitive information. Follow @AUALERT on Twitter, like the Facebook page at www.facebook.com/aualert, or download the AuburnSafety app. Twitter users can receive text messages by texting “follow AUALERT” to 40404. More information AU ALERT notifications can be found at auburn.edu/campussafety.

Campus Safety and Security also offers Campus Safety and Active Shooter Response Training for students. This training provides an overview of safety devices on campus, preparing for emergencies, and options during an incident involving an active shooter. While we hope we never have to deal with such a situation, it is very important for the university and its community to be empowered with options on how to respond. A training calendar is available on the department’s website.

AA/EEO AND TITLE IX OFFICE
317 James E. Foy Hall auburn.edu/titleix
(334) 844-4794

Auburn University’s Office of Affirmative Action/Equal Employment Opportunity (AA/EEO) & Title IX is responsible for enforcing the University’s Policies Prohibiting Discrimination and Harassment based on protected class status by investigating and resolving reports of policy violations.

Students and other members of the campus community can report incidents of harassment — including sexual assault, stalking, and relationship violence — any time at http://bit.ly/aureport, by emailing eeo@auburn.edu, or by talking with professional staff by calling (334) 844-4794.
STUDENT HEALTH INSURANCE
The Auburn University Student Insurance Plan is offered through United Healthcare, and offers lower out-of-pocket rates on prescriptions and doctor visits at the Student Pharmacy. Before sending your student to Auburn, check with your current insurance provider and see if enrolling your son or daughter in the student insurance plan is a better option. For more information regarding Auburn’s United Healthcare Insurance plan, visit www.uhcsr.com, and select “Find My School’s Plan.”

BIAS EDUCATION AND RESPONSE TEAM
Auburn University values freedom of expression and the open exchange of ideas. While openness protects controversial ideas, it does not protect acts, behaviors, conduct or communication aimed at individuals or groups that is motivated by someone’s bias against age, disability, ethnicity, nationality, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression. These acts, behaviors, conduct or communication may produce an unsafe or unwelcoming environment for Auburn family members. To learn more about how you or your student may report a potentially bias-related incident, please read aub.ie/BERT.

University Housing cultivates and supports living environments rooted in tradition with a commitment to providing well-maintained residence halls that are safe, welcoming, and inclusive. Housing staff foster holistic student development to prepare residents for success in a global society. Living on campus provides a unique experience for students to live in the heart of campus and make friends with fellow Auburn students. Living on campus also comes with community standards. Before your student moves in, encourage them to read the Guide to Residential Living at auburn.edu/housing. Reading the Guide will ensure that they are familiar with what items are permissible on campus, safety regulations, roommate discussions, and much more. Parents are encouraged to read the Guide too!

Learning to live with people from diverse backgrounds is a skill that lasts a lifetime. Encourage your student to talk with their roommate(s) about their preferred hours for quiet, study, sleep and guests; developing a cleaning schedule; respecting each other’s property; and developing rules for keeping their living space secure. Should conflicts arise, students living on campus should talk with their Resident Assistant for advice or assistance.

For information regarding move-in, download the Fall 2019 Move-In guide in the free mobile application, Auburn Guides.

Laundry
Each residence hall has its own laundry facility. Whether that is in each specific hall, or in a designated area, students have access to wash their clothes. Unless you want to spend each time your student comes home doing their laundry, now is the time to teach them how to separate their colors and the correct amount of detergent to add. A fun trick is to type out instructions and tape them to the bottom of their laundry basket. Each resident is responsible for their own detergent and other laundry supplies.

Campus Mail Services
Each housing area provides mail services for each resident. For more information on addressing mail to specific residential areas, visit auburn.edu/mailservices.

Office of Information Technology (OIT) can help students troubleshoot any technological problem that they may be having. By calling or stopping by the OIT Helpdesk, your student can ask technology-related questions. In addition to the OIT Helpdesk, students with a PC may also utilize the Student PC shop in the library satellite office to help solve problems with their personal computer.
DINING SERVICES
Auburn University Student Center, Suite 2101
255 Heisman Drive
auburn.edu/dining
(334) 844-8504

Campus Dining is committed to serving a robust variety of fresh, delicious foods for our diverse student body. Located throughout campus, students will discover new tastes and enjoy traditional favorites at our 30+ dining locations.

Every semester, when students register for classes at Auburn, they’re enrolled in a dining plan that will be available via their Tiger Card ID. The base on-campus dining plan is $1100 per semester, which covers about half of the average student’s dining budget. The off-campus base plan is $350 per semester which provides funds for lunch, snacks and beverages. For those looking for plans that encompass more of their students dining needs, new optional plans have been added this year. Students may choose to upgrade to a variety of hybrid plans that include a combination of block meals that may be used in our traditional dining halls: Foy Commons and the Village Tiger Zone. These plans also include declining balance dollars that may be used at all dining locations on campus. While declining balance funds roll from semester to semester through the end of the academic year, block meals expire at the end of each semester. To ensure your student has chosen the plan best suited to his/her needs, meal plan changes may be requested during the first 15 class days of each semester via the AU Access “My Campus” dining link. Students may also place additional funds into an optional dining account to purchase food on campus. These additional dining funds never expire. Be sure to check auburn.edu/dining for complete details.

Campus Dining has procedures that allow an exemption/reduction for a serious medical condition, religious prohibition, campus organization membership (if the campus organization requires participation in a large meal plan), or a student’s being away from campus (internship, co-op or distance learning). Exemption requests are due by the 15th class day of each semester. If you require one of these exemptions, please consult the Campus Dining website or call the office for details 334-844-8504. You may also contact Dining Services via email at dining@auburn.edu.

TIGER CARD
261 Foy Hall
auburn.edu/tigercard
(334) 844-4507

The Tiger Card is the student’s official identification at Auburn University. This photo ID is used to gain access to their residence hall, swiped to eat food from their dining plan, and check out books at the RBD Library. Depending on where a student lives, residence hall access and meal plan money is automatically uploaded to the card. Information regarding this price difference and specifics on roll-over dining money can be found under the “Dining Services” section. At any point in time, students may load additional funds to their Tiger Card by visiting the Tiger Card website.

Please note that a Tiger Card is separate from the Ignited Card. Ignited cards are used for admittance into sporting events. All purchased home game tickets are found on this card. If your schedule allows, Ignited Cards may be picked up at the Auburn Arena after your student’s orientation session.

If a student has not picked up his or her Ignited Card, it may be picked up at the Auburn Ticket Office on the bottom floor of the Auburn Arena.
It is important for first-year students to engage in the career planning process early in their freshmen year. Experts recommend that students visit their career center early and often. Encouraging students to take advantage of the many resources and services offered by Career Services & Cooperative Education is a great first step in facilitating their career development. Career Counselors are available to meet with students to help them get on track with their career goals. Services available include:

- Major and career exploration
- Career assessments and career counseling
- Resume and cover letter writing
- Part-time job, internship, and full-time job search
- Online resources
- Interview skills development
- Career fairs and networking events

Students can drop-in at Career Services & Cooperative Education Monday-Friday between the hours of 9:00 am and 4:00 pm for assistance.

5 TIPS FOR YOU AND YOUR FIRST YEAR STUDENT

1. Support Their Exploration – If undecided, exposure to new areas could help your student identify potential majors of interest.

2. Affirm Their Skills – You know your student well. Help them discover areas that align with their skillset by drawing attention to strengths.

3. Discuss What They Enjoy and Encourage Involvement – When talking to your student about their experiences, focus on what they enjoy and encourage them to seek experiences outside of the classroom.

4. Do Not Panic – Students graduate and are employed in all majors. Rather than panicking, encourage them to gain experience early.

5. Urge Them to Seek Help Early – It is never too early to seek aid, but it can be too late. Urge your student to ask for help early and regularly.
The campus bookstore provides the flexibility and convenience students need to be ready for class. By offering the option to rent or purchase textbooks digitally or in print, students can find the materials they will need for class in the format that best suits their study needs. The bookstore also facilitates course materials for All-Access courses. At the bookstore, students can take advantage of special discounts, find great gameday gear, and stock up on school supplies, including technology and software. The bookstore Tech Desk offers technology support to students with general technology issues and for certified repair of Apple products. All revenue after expenses return to campus in support of Auburn University.

All students who plan to commute or live on campus with a vehicle must register their vehicles online through AU Access to avoid receiving a ticket, wheel lock, or tow during their time spent on campus at Auburn University. For additional information on how to properly register your personal vehicle visit the Parking Services web site (aub.ie/parkingregistration) or go to the following link (aub.ie/register4parking) to view step-by-step instructions to complete the online registration process.

In addition to registering personal vehicles, all bicycles on campus are required to be registered through AU Access. Parking Services provides bicycle permits that will need to be displayed on the bicycle throughout the year in which it is valid. While there is no cost associated with the bicycle permits, after the second week of class any unregistered bicycle on campus will be placed in the Auburn University impound lot at the owner’s expense.

Auburn University’s Transportation Services encourages all parents and students to review the parking rules and regulations along with necessary information regarding visiting the campus on our website before coming to campus. This will ensure that you will avoid receiving any tickets, wheel locks or towing expenses. The Parking Services website also provides a digital map for visitors and students to assist with navigating around campus.
FAMILY RIGHTS AND PRIVACY ACT (FERPA):
Many parents want to find out their student’s grades, ask about their student’s academic performance or check on their student’s finances. Access to all of these falls under the federal Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), which places limits on the right to review educational records. Once your student is enrolled, regardless of age, you will not have access to their educational information unless your student specifically grants it to you.

It’s worth reading the FERPA information and then discussing with your student the types of protected information and how they will share that information with you. Your student can also add you as an Authorized User to view and pay their student account.

CONNECT TO YOUR STUDENT:
Request access to view your student’s grades, schedule, and financial information through the Family Portal. Once your account is set up at familyportal.auburn.edu, click the graduation cap in the top right corner. All you will need to register is your student’s Auburn University email address. Please note that students must be registered for classes in order to initiate a connection request.

EBILL AUTHORIZED USER:
Your student can register you as an Authorized User on their eBill account to give you access to view records and pay bills. To add you as a user, your student should log into their AU Access Account, click the My Finances tab, select the eBill icon, and select Authorized Users. Please note this is a separate process from the Family Portal financial information request. The Family Portal will allow you to see when a bill is due, but will direct you to the eBill to pay.

AU ALERT:
AU Alert is a system that has the ability to notify students, faculty, and staff of critical information and situations affecting campus through the use of text and voice messages, and emails. Parents are encouraged to forgo listing their telephone number through AU Alert, so students on campus are receiving important information first. To follow important updates regarding AU ALERT, follow them on Twitter or Facebook and download the free AuburnSafety app to receive push notifications. For instructions on receiving notifications from Twitter and Facebook, visit auburn.edu/aualert.

EMERGENCY CONTACTS:
By filling out the emergency contact form, Auburn will have access to your information in case a crisis occurs. Your student can register you as an emergency contact by logging into their AU Access account, and clicking on the My Contacts icon within the My Campus tab.
FLYING IN?
Auburn is conveniently located just an hour and a half from the Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport and two hours and 15 minutes from the Birmingham-Shuttlesworth International Airport. We encourage families to note the time difference from Auburn to the Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport when booking travel arrangements.

AUBURN/OPELIKA
The City of Auburn has a unique character that is the result of a combination of influences from the special atmospheres and energies provided by the diversity of its communities. Visiting your student during their time on campus is a great way to experience the culture and take part in a wide variety of events throughout the year.

If you plan on visiting the Auburn/Opelika area, browsing the Auburn and Opelika Tourism Bureau’s website is a great place to start. This website can help you find everything from hotels in the area to restaurants to enjoy during your visit. Visit aotourism.com for more information.
