Insider Tips for Auburn’s Transfer Students

Class Registration time is near!

While we are midway through the fall semester, it is already time to start looking toward the next semester and thinking about what classes you plan to take. Class registration begins to open on November 4th based off of the number of hours you have completed. Make sure to start planning your class schedule now so you are ready when your specific time ticket opens.

Here are some frequently asked questions to help you:

When do I register?
Your specific time ticket will be posted to your AU Access three weeks prior to registration. Your time will be listed on the My Academics tab under the Academic Profile heading.

How do I register for classes?
Check out a how to video at fye.auburn.edu/orientation/class-registration-assistance/ or the attached page from your Tiger Transitions book. This will walk you through the registration process.

Where can I see when the classes are offered?
The easiest way is to use Tiger Scheduler which we explain more on the next page.

What do I do if it says there is a hold on my account?
You will need to contact the specific office the hold corresponds with to get it resolved and removed. It is a good idea to click the “View Holds” link on the My Academics tab before your time ticket opens so you can resolve any holds before your registration time starts.

Should I meet with an Advisor before registering?
YES! Some colleges may even require it before registering. It is ALWAYS a good idea talk with your advisor about what classes to take for the next semester and to make sure you are on the right track for your major/career path before you register. To schedule a meeting with your advisor use Advise Assist. The Advise Assist icon is in the My Academics tab and it will help you schedule an appointment with your advisor.

It says I need an alternate PIN. What does this mean?
Since some colleges require advising, your advisor may put a special “alternate” PIN on your record to prevent you from registering until you meet with him or her. Once you do, your advisor will change your alternate PIN and inform you of this number. After entering that number, you will be able to register for classes. (This is just another of the many reasons why it’s so important to see you advisor before you register!)

What happens if I start registering and the class I wanted is closed?
If this happens, there are a couple of different things you can do.
1. You can do a class search or use Tiger Scheduler to see if the same course is offered at a different time.
2. You can try to waitlist the class if that is an option. If you get on the waitlist for a course, you will receive an email if a spot becomes available and you will then have 24 hours to claim it on AU Access.
3. You can see if there is another class you can take instead. It is a good practice to have some backup classes, like core courses or other alternatives, ready in case you run into any conflicts when you're registering.

Transfer Student Spotlight

Being a student at Auburn University is one of the best experiences that one can have, and I am honored to have the opportunity to receive an education from a school that is so dedicated to its students. Now that you are getting settled into the Auburn family, I hope that each and every one of you feel the same way that I do. At this point in my transfer experience, so much was going through my mind. I was beginning to write essays, I was getting my first test grades back, and I was trying to utilize campus resources while planning my schedule for the upcoming semester. At times, I found myself becoming overwhelmed but as I developed a set routine, things became so much easier. One of the best decisions that I made during this time was getting to know my professors and attending Supplemental Instruction (SI) sessions. The SI sessions helped me comprehend topics that I had a hard time grasping during class which in turn, helped me do well on the tests. Some other resources that I have utilized on campus include the Miller Writing Center and the University Career Center in Mary Martin Hall. The Miller Writing Center provides students with assistance in writing essays, research papers, lab reports, and more. Every time I had to write an essay for one of my classes, I would make an appointment and meet with a tutor to make sure that everything looked good before turning it in. It was so nice to get this extra feedback before the professor graded the assignment. The Career Center has also been a huge part of my Auburn experience. Because of the help that I received, I was able to choose a major and enter my coursework that I knew was right for me. I would highly encourage all students to take advantage of the available resources here because they have been so helpful for me.

Let Tiger Scheduler help you schedule your classes better

Ever wondered if there were other ways your schedule could fit together so you could have Fridays off or all your classes in the morning? Tiger Scheduler is here to help show you all of the different combinations for your class times so you can pick the best schedule for you. Tiger Scheduler is located on your My Academics tab of AU Access. Once there, you can enter all of the courses you want to take and it will generate all of the possibilities.

Thousands of options too daunting? You can click and drag times on the schedule that you want to be avoided, or you can pin down specific class sections to help narrow down the options. You can also save the schedules you prefer most by clicking “Add to Favorites”. This will allow you to easily find your best schedule again.

While using Tiger Scheduler, you may get an error that says there are too many schedule possibilities. To fix this, just pin down a class section that you like and that will reduce the options available and fix the error.

Please note that Tiger Scheduler will not register you for these classes, so make sure to open the Add or Drop link on the My Academics tab of AU Access and enter the CRNs that Tiger Scheduler provides. Also if you need to make any changes to your schedule, you will need to make the change on the Add or Drop Classes page (not Tiger Scheduler) so it is officially changed.

A note from the Involvement Ambassadors

Involvement is important for any Auburn student, no matter how many semesters you have attended or where you have come from. Through involvement you grow in friendship, professionalism, service, and, culture.

There are opportunities everywhere and every day here at Auburn! There are involvement areas that meet once a week, once a month, and daily so you can find the group that best fits your needs. Even if you are starting to look this month, you can still find great opportunities for all of the student body to participate.

As Involvement Ambassadors, we represent Student Involvement and the 500+ student organizations on campus. Our job is to connect students with organizations that reflect their interests and to assist student organizations in any way we can. We are located in Suite 3130 in the Student Center Monday through Friday, and are available between the hours of 10 a.m. - 2 p.m. and 5 p.m. - 8 p.m.

Below are some tips specifically for transfer students on how to get involved at Auburn:

- Meet with an Involvement Ambassador for a one-on-one involvement consultation
- Check for involvement opportunities on AUinvolve. Events and interest sessions are constantly being added, and you can find those dates, times and locations under the Events tab on AUinvolve or on each organization’s specific AUinvolve page.
- Use the “Ask an Ambassador” live chat feature on the Student Involvement’s website to ask questions about involvement
- Fill out your interests profile on AUinvolve to find organizations that are specific to your interests
- Don’t be afraid to step outside your comfort zone!
- “Transferring to a different school was hands down one of the most nerve-wracking things I have ever done. As a Georgia native, I was not sure what to expect at a new school, let alone in a new state. However, once I got to Auburn those fears quickly disappeared. And why you may ask? Involvement! Thanks to my time on campus and the involvement opportunities I put myself out there to be a part of, I have gained wonderful friends, mentors, and established an amazing Auburn family. From one transfer student to another, take it from me and get the most out of your time here by getting involved. Taking in the awesome opportunities our school has to offer, and by creating your home away from home with the Auburn family! Welcome home and War Eagle!” - Amanda Ballouk (Involvement Ambassador)
